

all of our hearts? In spite of our serious apprehensions, the weather was splendid. The procession was able to proceed throughout its whole course amid a crowd filled with devotion and to the singing of the holy canticles.

Pastoral Visit.—Religious Ceremonies have succeeded one another rapidly this month at Ste-Anne de Beaupré. Monday the 13th was the day fixed for the Pastoral Visit. About 3 p. m., His Grace Archbishop Bégin came from St-Féréol in splendid weather. He was accompanied by Rev. M<sup>r</sup> Lemieux, the pastor of the last parish visited, by Rev. M<sup>r</sup> M'Crea, Pastor of St Joachim, by Rev. M<sup>r</sup> Gauvreau, Pastor of St-Roch de Quebec, by Rev. M<sup>r</sup> Arsenault, Assistant Secretary, and by Rev. M<sup>r</sup> Hudon.

A quarter of an hour after His Grace's arrival, M<sup>r</sup> Gauvreau ascended the pulpit to prepare the parishioners for the visit of their new Archbishop. Then, all proceeded in procession to the presbytery, according to the ceremonial prescribed, to meet His Grace. The latter spoke in his turn to the parishioners, reminding them of the principal features of the divine Constitution of the Church regarding Bishops and their functions. The evening was devoted to hearing confessions.

On the following morning at 6 o'clock, His Grace celebrated holy mass and, at 8 o'clock, conferred the sacrament of Confirmation to 112 children.

Touching Detail.—One of our children, little Edgar Richard, who had been ill for a long time, had made his first communion in the form of a viaticum, and even received Extreme Unction. It was proposed to His Grace to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to him at his home. His Grace willingly granted the request of the distressed family and went on Monday evening to confirm the dying boy.

Pilgrimages.—The devotion to St. Anne is increasing every year. In support of this assertion, we give below the list of the pilgrimages that have come, up to the 20th of this month :
