PUBLICATIONS.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY,
150, NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

ITS DUBIOUS CHARACTER—RELATION TO SLAVERY, &c.

1. GOSPEL METHOD OF EVANGELIZATION—Sermon Preached before American Mission Association (established 1846 and is Anti-Slavery,) at Annual meeting, September, 1853 by Rev. Prof. Peck, of Oberlin, Ohio. New York, A. M. Association, 48 Beekman Street, p. p. 16.

2. AMERICAN SLAVERY, a formidable obstacle to the conversion of the world—By W. Goodell New York, Anti-Slavery Society 48, Beekman street (Prize Essay) 1854, p. p. 24. $3 per 100.

3. AMERICAN SLAVERY in connexion with AMERICAN CHRISTIANITY, embracing Sermon (our Country's Sin) by the Rev. Dr. Perkins, Letters by Hon. W. Jay, as to the "AMERICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION," (established 1824) which is under dictation of the Slave Power—New York: H. B. Knight, 48 Beekman Street, 1854, p. p. 60.

4. (Lately published) UNANIMOUS REMONSTRANCE of the fourth Congregational Church, Hartford, Conn. against the policy of the American Tract Society (established 1825) on the subject of Slavery, Hartford. S. Andrus and Son.—$1.50 per 100 (stereotyped) p. p. 34, 1855.—(This pamphlet should be in the hands of every freeman, and loyal man, and Minister of religion especially, in Canada.)

5. MINUTES OF GENERAL ASSOCIATION (Congregational) of Michigan—Detroit, May 1854—with appendix containing Report on the American Tract Society and Slavery—Ann Arbor: p: Pound's Press—and New York—price 25 cents—p. 51.—

—AND—

6. COLPORTAGE IN CANADA,—An address of Committee of Upper Canada Tract Society,—Toronto, October 1854,—with Report of Convention of Colporteurs at Toronto—Sept. 1854 (Published for the Society, Toronto) p. p: 30—The address is well and ably written and the plan excellent,—but there is no remonstrance in the Address against the American Tract Society, whose publications they adopt, in the face of facts divulged by American Divines and Societies and others, of such Society being in the position it is as to Slavery,—its expurgations in Books published,—want of genuineness of the editions—and dubiousness as to doctrines.—One memorable Book mentioned in said address, as adopted, I know to be not genuinely copied in the edit on published.

The first five publications are particularly noted for the perusal and guidance, in this free country, of every Christian and loyal man,—and for the guidance of the Tract Societies at Toronto,—Kingston, Montreal, and Quebec—and Hamilton, Dundas and London.

The Massachusetts Sabbath School Society, of Boston (established as a union in 1825, and as it is, 1832) and the Presbyterian Board of Publication of Philadelphia (established in 1838) and the American Reform Tract and Book Society at Cincinnati Ohio, (formed 1851), publish a large collection of Religious Books, Catechisms, Hymns, Tracts, &c. which are on a pure and genuine basis—and are not mutilated,—of all which, Catalogues, Reports, &c., can be obtained on application, and information freely given—

The Mass. S. S. Society state, "we are required to declare the whole counsel of God,"—as in their pulpits so in their schools and publications,—and they have done so on Slavery, as the mighty sin of the United States.

The American Reform Tract Society in Ohio, declares its object shall be to promulgate the doctrines of the Reformation.—to apply the principle of christianity to every known sin,—and to bring on a form of society in accordance with the Gospel of Christ—and it will receive into its treasury none of the known fruits of iniquity nor the gains of the oppressor.—It was formed on a pure basis, and in opposition to the American Tract Society of 150 Nassau street, New-York whose basis and workings are not pure.—The Philadelphia Board publishes genuine Copies &c but does not declare for or against Slavery.
