

to the house of an Indian woman, Mrs. Gunner, for dinner, which had been most kindly provided by Mrs. Cummins, Mrs. Fluhman and Mrs. Carpenter, ably assisted, we need hardly say, by "Maggie". Then followed shortened Evening Prayer with an earnest Address by the Bishop on the Holy Communion, after which his Lordship called on Mr. Kirkpatrick at the Hudson Bay Post, and then drove back to the Hotel and took the night train for Quebec.

Next year the Bishop hopes to arrange to visit Pointe Bleue earlier in the Summer, when all the Indians are on the Reserve, so that some who have been prepared and who are waiting to be confirmed, may have an opportunity. Meanwhile let us pray that the good seed, sown in the Mission on this occasion, may bring forth good fruit to the glory and praise of God.

THE ROBERVAL HOTEL.

In connection with our Bishop's visit to Roberval and Pointe Bleue, we are able to shew our readers a view of the large and handsome Hotel Roberval.

Roberval is a name famous in Canadian history, being that of a French Governor sent out to New France more than three and a half centuries ago, whose mission, however, ended in disaster, while he himself is said by some authorities to have been finally massacred in Paris, while others assert that he never returned from his last voyage up the Saguenay. The Hotel Roberval is a handsome building overlooking the Lake, and close to both the steamboat landing and the hotel station of the railway. It has accommodation for three hundred guests, and is one of the most commodious as well as one of the most comfortable houses in Canada. It is supplied with billiard room, bowling alley, and a promenade, dancing and concert hall, and its dining hall measures seventy by thirty-five feet. The furnishings are all quite new and exceedingly handsome, and the house is supplied with hot and cold water and with electric light and bells throughout, even the grounds surrounding it being illuminated by electricity at night. The outdoor attractions are lawn tennis, croquet, fishing, bathing, boating and driving. The view of Lake St. John from the windows is quite sea-like, and, even in the clearest weather, the vision can scarcely reach to the opposite shore at the Grand Discharge, a distance of some twenty-five miles.

We earnestly commend this comfortable Hostelry to the attention of our readers. It would prove a great centre for a holiday next Summer.

PRAYER.

To be used by Lay Helpers.

MAY BE USED IN CHURCH.

"Vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, Merciful Father, to prosper with Thy blessing the work of the Lay Helpers of this Diocese. And grant unto all, who are in any way taking part in this our effort for Thy Glory, that they may set Thy Holy Will ever before them, and do that which is well pleasing in Thy sight and persevere in Thy service even unto the end: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

NOTES.

AD CLERUM.—Is there any Clergyman who has not had any holiday or change, who would like to take the duty at the Grosse Isle Quarantine Station for the month of October? The remuneration is $50 and a small furnished house with free passage from Quebec. Application should be made to the Bishop at once.

The Archdeacon requests readers of his Sermon on the Cathedral System in our August Number to read on page 124, middle of second column, could instead of would in the Sentence. "And on this Continent what would be more stimulating."
