AGENT "H. T. WILSON,

ORDERED TAILORING.

A Word About Suits.

It has always been our aim to build up a permanent trade by making up such materials, and at MODERATE PRICES, that will give both the buyer and seller the greatest amount of pleasure and astisfaction.

This season we are stronger than usual in this branch of our business.

We have first-class talent and an immense stock for our customers to select from. You can have your choice of over 1,000 pieces of Now Tweeds, etc., all bought from first hands, so that no middleman's profit is added to the pace of any garment,

The Snoque Cont, single-breasted, is still the form of coat for the million. Above all others, this is the business suit. It is worn as a loose, every germent, is of moderate length. It is made to close with one, two or three buttons, but the two buttons is the new style, cut away well in front from the second button. A wale latitude is permitted in the selection of materials—Tweeds, rough and smooth faced, Ikniegal Stripes and Bannockburn Checks, Worsteds, Silk Mixtures, etc., etc., so that all tastes meet on one common platform. all tastes meet on one common platform,

Then there is the Double-Bronated Sacque for winter wear. This is both comfortable and fashionable and recommends itself by its suitability to the season. It has an air of warmth and comfort about it.

When coats and rests are made different from trouvers other fabrics than twocals will be in request—such as Naps, Chinchillas and Angolas ; pearl buttons, cord edges and velvet collars will be prominent features.

Men's S.B. Soft Roll Coats. The roll extends to the second button, showing the vest, which has a roll collar to match. The cost is trimmed with silk facing; it can, however, be buttoued in the usual way at the first button.

A wide range of materials can be advantageously used, such as Worsteds Smooth-faced Tweeds, Angulas and West of Englands. Whilst the most of them will be made up, costs, vests and trousers slike, many will be worn costs and vests of one pattern, trousers of another. Binding will be used altogether with silk serge facings. In some instances the seams are double stitched, with a short vent and a single row of
