To the Ratepayers of the West Ward.

GENTLEMEN:

I need not say that I feel extremely flattered at the reception of your call to allow myself to be nominated as your Representative in the City Council. In acceding to a request at once general and spontaneous, I beg to assure you that, should I be returned, I will endeavour, faithfully and diligently, to promote the interests of the Ward, as well as those of our rising and prosperous City.

I am, Gentlemen,

Yours faithfully,

JAMES SMITH.
