

man's attention and giving him something to do... otherwise when he remained in the way that...

CHAPTER XXII

FATHER AND SON. Geraldine felt utterly miserable and lonely when Clement left the house...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

kindness, the watcher by the bedside taking for a moment the part of son to the dying man...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

for thinking of me at all, and coming to give me this warning, but I really don't want it...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...

Latest Irish Mail News.

[From the Dublin Irishman, September 30.]

Lady Florence Dixie has subscribed £5 to the Doloughduy Fund—just to mark her appreciation of Earl Spencer's thick-headed firmness in hanging Francis Hynes.

Irish residents of Liverpool are taking earnest and practical steps to extend the sale of Irish goods to that city, and thence to other parts of England.

Mr. Healy's voice rang out clear and forcible in Mitton-Malony on Sunday. Mr. O'Donnell spoke with his usual lucidness in Younghall and Danquary, and Messrs. Lalor and O'Connor delivered spirited addresses in Burris-In-Osory.

One hundred and twenty branches of the Labor League and Industrial Union are already in existence, and the number is increasing at the rate of from fifteen to twenty a week.

In the retrospect of the Egyptian war, the London Times makes no mention of the 18th Royal Irish Regiment in connection with the battle of Tel-el-Kebir.

Mr. Tottenham, M.P., is getting crops out with military honors. A large force of armed constabulary are protecting an Emergency gang who are engaged in trying to save the harvests which are by this time at rotten literally as the said Mr. or Colonel Tottenham is rotten politically.

Several labor meetings were held in Ireland on Sunday. At Manohamilton, Mr. Tottenham and Major O'Shane were sweepingly denounced by the speakers.

A report shows that practical work is being done by the Mansion House Evicted Tenants' Fund Committee. Fifty-three local committees have been formed to co-operate with the central executive.

A whole week has been occupied in evicting tenants at Ennis and other places in that part of the county Mayo.

spendent says: "Having occasion to meet Ameeadab on business, I witnessed a man, who was apparently taken into custody by the police, brought out, walked to the back of the station, belabored by three or four constables in the presence of a stout Jemadar.

The Dublin Castle papers are exercising their dull wit pleasantly over the intended resignation of Mr. John Dillon.

Mr. Louis Drane, of Paris, believes that a large trade in Irish goods can be organized in Paris. One manufacturer would be easily sold in large quantities if one or more houses could be induced to show them in their windows.

We observe that the English Government are getting ready to transport some thousands of the Irish people to foreign countries.

Mr. Tottenham, M.P., is getting crops out with military honors. A large force of armed constabulary are protecting an Emergency gang who are engaged in trying to save the harvests which are by this time at rotten literally as the said Mr. or Colonel Tottenham is rotten politically.

Several labor meetings were held in Ireland on Sunday. At Manohamilton, Mr. Tottenham and Major O'Shane were sweepingly denounced by the speakers.

A report shows that practical work is being done by the Mansion House Evicted Tenants' Fund Committee. Fifty-three local committees have been formed to co-operate with the central executive.

A whole week has been occupied in evicting tenants at Ennis and other places in that part of the county Mayo.

When you ask for Dr. Holman's Pad—be sure that you get a genuine Holman's Pad. There are imitations upon the market. Do not be deceived.

"ROUGH ON RATS."

Clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, shanks, chipmunks, gophers. 15c. Drugists.

SCOTCH NEWS.

[From the Glasgow Herald, September 23rd.] During the past 23 tons of coal were shipped to Glasgow from Greenock, and 435 tons sent outwards. There were no shipments of pig-iron.

Mr. Forbes, of Medwyn, West Linton, has given his tenants a reduction of rent of from 10 to 15 per cent for the two last years and for the crop of 1883.

Arrangements are now completed by a new firm, composed of Port Glasgow gentlemen, for starting an iron shipbuilding yard at Donnybrook Park, Dumbarton.

For smuggling 2 1/2 lbs. of tobacco on board the SS "Andromeda," David Buchanan, fireman on the steamer, was at Leith, on Tuesday, fined £14 4s 6d, including costs, with the option of 14 days' imprisonment.

At Edinburgh Police Court on Monday morning, Thos. Bell, a young man, pleaded guilty to having assaulted Barclay Bradley, an officer of the Salvation Army. Bell was fined £1, with the option of 14 days' imprisonment.

At Jedburgh a curious vault, regularly built, has been discovered under a garden near a dwelling house. The explanation given is that about 30 years ago there was a good deal of smuggling in the district, and that the vault was there made as a place of hiding for contraband goods.

Sir David Wedderburn, late member for the Haddington Burghs, died on Monday morning at Inveresk Lodge, near Musselburgh, at the age of 40. It had been another long and honorable life. The cause of death was heart failure. He had been attacked by his brother-in-law, Major-General Hope, O.B.

On Sunday morning the body of a woman named Isabella Cameron or Watson, wife of Thomas Watson, baker, 60 Kelly street, Greenock, was found lying in the back court behind her house in a pool of blood with her skull fractured. It seems that she had been killed by being a little weak-minded, had been ill and confined to bed for some months, and it is supposed that she had got up in the early morning, opened the window and jumped or fallen to the ground, a height of three storeys.

Early on Tuesday morning a serious assault and robbery was committed in the village of Blackburn, near Bathgate. While four barrowmen were returning home they were attacked by three young men named Alex. Forrest, Wm. Whitlaw, and Henry Stewart, all belonging to Blackburn. The ruffians were speedily arrested by Constables Cameron and Forbes, and conveyed to Lighthow. From one of the party, an old man named Peter Harkness, the sum of 28s had been taken. All the persons assaulted were very much cut, the old man Harkness being very seriously injured about the head.

Why she stood there and did not instantly go in, she did not know. She saw Montana kneeling by the bedside...