It Begins at Home—That's right. If you are making money, give part of it away, and give generously and nobly. There are enough who need it. Extend your charities according to your prosperity, but don't forget one thing—"Charity begins at home." Do not forget that the beginning of it is a round sum of insurance on your own life for the security and safety of your own family, or the comfort and consolation of your own declining years.—Exchange.

thinly, or the common and constant that go to make up a good business man, the resolution to get his life insured for a good, solid sum—and then to keep it insured—may count for fifty.—Daily Stockholder.

The weekly Underwriter of Philadelphia says of the ÆTNA: "It is strong, solid, and under most efficient management. The public ought to appreciate the value of a life insurance in such an institution, and it does."
