

Contracting Party shall, however, be free to maintain its requirements of direct consignment existing on the date of signature of the present Agreement in respect of any goods in regard to which such direct consignment has relation to that Contracting Party's prescribed method of valuation for duty purposes.

ARTICLE III

The advantages accorded by Canada exclusively to countries and their dependent overseas territories entitled to the benefits of the British Preferential Tariff shall be excepted from the operation of Articles I and II of this Agreement. The Preferential Tariff treatment which may be accorded by either Contracting Party to developing countries, areas or territories in accordance with UNCTAD resolution 21/II/ shall be excepted from the operation of Articles I and II of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV

No prohibitions or restrictions shall be applied by either Contracting Party on the importation or exportation of any product from or to the territory of the other Contracting Party which are not similarly applied to the importation or exportation of the like product from or to the territories of all third countries except for import or exchange restrictions applicable to all countries in like circumstances for the purpose of safeguarding the external financial position and balance of payments.

The provisions of the present Agreement shall not limit the right of either Contracting Party to apply prohibitions or restrictions of any kind directed to the protection of its essential security interests.

ARTICLE V

The Contracting Parties will facilitate visits for business purposes between the two countries.

ARTICLE VI

Each Contracting Party looks forward to a further development and diversification of their mutual trade. To this end, it has been agreed that representatives of the two sides will meet at least once a year to review the development of trade between the two countries and the implementation of the present Agreement, and to elaborate measures as appropriate to facilitate the development of this trade within the scope of the laws and regulations in force in the respective countries.

The Government of each Contracting Party shall give sympathetic consideration to any representation which the Government of the other Contracting Party may make in respect of the implementation of the present Agreement.
