

Trade Competitiveness and Non-Regulatory Approaches to Environmental Protection

The International Trade Advisory Committee's Task Force on Trade and Environment acknowledges the contributions of the people and organizations in the production of this report.

The project was supported by the International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD).

Rob Kerr, Principal, Sustainability Consulting, Project Manager
Ron Yachnin, Senior Research Associate, Business and the Environment Research Program (BERP) at The Conference Board of Canada (CBCO)

Natalie Gauthier, Director, BERP, CBCO
Brian Guthrie, Director, BERP, CBCO
Jan Campfens, BERP, CBCO
A Report to the Task Force on Trade and Environment of the
International Trade Advisory Committee

The Advisory Committee:

- Mike Beale, Environment Canada
- Tom Gove, The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Procter & Gamble Inc.
- Joe Kostler, Alberta Power
- Gordon Lambert, Suncor

Produced by the ITAC Subcommittee:

- Joe Lukacs, Co-Chair, CETAC-WEST
- Jim Leslie, Co-Chair, IISD
- Tom Gove, Canadian Chamber of Commerce/Procter & Gamble Inc.
- David Runnalls, IISD

Financial support provided by Environment Canada, Industry Canada, Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade, Natural Resources Canada, Suncor, TransAlta, Alberta Power, Procter & Gamble, The Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, Agnita, Novacor, EPCOR, IISD and Syncruda.

Researched and prepared by:

- Rob Kerr
- Aaron Cosbey, IISD
- The Conference Board of Canada

While the contributions of those named, as well as others, are gratefully acknowledged, any shortcomings in the report remain the responsibility of the authors.

2nd Draft
June 18, 1998

