

ANNEX

ACADEMIC AND EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGES

Both parties agreed to the arrangements given below for the categories of participants mentioned in sub-sections (1) (2) (3) (4) (5) (7) and (12) of Section B:

- (a) The sending party provides transportation to and from destination;
- (b) The host party provides tuition fees and other fees of institutions of higher learning, expenses related to internal travel in accordance with the research or study programmes approved by the receiving side, subsistence allowance, suitable free accommodation for award-holder, and free medical, dental and hospital services. If award-holders are accompanied by dependents, similar free medical, dental and hospital services will be provided for them, and the host party will assist in finding suitable accommodation;
- (c) Both parties will exchange lists and data sheets of nominees according to the following schedule:

Nominations by the sending country:

The categories of participants mentioned in sub-sections (1) (2) (3) (5) and (7) of Section B, the nominations, with data sheets, shall be submitted no later than four months before the expected date of arrival in the host country.

Notification of acceptance by the host country:

For the categories of participants mentioned in sub-sections (1) (2) (3) (5) (7) and (12) of Section B, notification of acceptance by the host country shall be given within two months of receipt of nominations from the sending country.

- (d). Subsistence allowances paid by the host country:

- 1) For professors and specialists (Section B(1))

In Canada $12.00 a day

In USSR 10.00 roubles a day