ANTIQUÉ ITEMS PURCHASED FOR PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICIAL RESIDENCE

Question No. 2,305—Mr. Cossitt:

What are all the reasons that most of the antique items purchased at public expense for the Prime Minister's official residence at 24 Sussex Drive came originally from foreign countries and what are all the reasons that items of Canadiana which would be part of Canada's heritage have not been purchased instead?

Right Hon. P. E. Trudeau (Prime Minister): The Government spares no effort to ensure that items of Canadiana forming part of Canada's rich cultural patrimony are preserved as shown by collections in National Museums, the setting up of Heritage Canada, the restoration of historical sites, and the introduction during the current session of Bill C-33, the Cultural Property Export and Import Act. Many important items of Canadiana are situated in various parts of 24 Sussex.
