

2. Does the firm who operates the coffee shop have a concession and, if so, what monthly rent or other revenue accrues to the Department of Transport?

3. Does the Department of Transport have any control over the prices charged by this coffee shop and, if so, has such control ever been exerted?

4. What cut of meat is served by this coffee shop as a ribeye steak at $2.95, and what is the average size of one serving in ounces?

5. Has the Department of Transport received any complaints, or other representations, regarding over-charging by this coffee shop and, if so, what action was taken, or will be taken?

No. 2,284—Mr. Coates—November 5

Did the government pay the expenses of any person who accompanied Canada's representative to the recent Olympic Games in Tokyo and, if so, of whom and what expenses were paid and for what reason?

No. 2,285—Mr. Loney—November 5

1. How many householders are served by the Post Office at Tobermory, County of Bruce?

2. What is the number of the rental boxes?

3. What are the dimensions of the boxes?

4. What is the approximate number of householders served by general delivery?

Notices of Motions for the Production of Papers—On the next Wednesday sitting

No. 185—Mr. Flemming (Victoria-Carleton)—November 5

That an Order of the House do issue for copies of the final flag designs, in categories A, B and C as voted upon by the Special Committee on a Canadian Flag and listed in detail in the Committee's Report, page 834, Votes and Proceedings, dated October 29, 1964.

Notices of Motions (Routine Proceedings)—On Monday next

November 5—Mr. Asselin (Notre-Dame-de-Grâce) (Chairman of the Standing Committee on Standing Orders):

That the Third Report of the Standing Committee on Standing Orders, presented to the House on Thursday, November 5, 1964, be now concurred in.

Government Notices of Motions—On Monday next

November 5—The Minister of Labour:

That the Standing Committee on Industrial Relations be empowered to hear and to examine members of the Board of Trustees of the Maritime Transportation Unions concerning the acts performed and the facts found in carrying out the duties entrusted to them by the Maritime Transportation Unions Trustees Act and to report to the House from time to time.