

FANCY DRESS BALL,

SENATE CHAMBER, OTTAWA,

February 17th, 1896.

It is intended that this Ball shall be representative of various epochs in Canadian history.

Dances have been arranged characteristic of different periods, in which the ladies and gentlemen taking part will represent various historical personages connected with Canada or its discovery and settlement.

The following are the periods decided on, with the names of the ladies who have undertaken to organize the dances:—

First discovery of Canada by the Norsemen, about the year 1000, under Leif Erickson and others.—Government House party.

Cabot and his Venetian friends starting on their voyage of discovery under the protection of Henry VII.—Mrs. Mackintosh.

Jacques Cartier leaving the Court of Francis I, on his way to Canada.—Mrs. Daly.
