

14. If any passenger shall wilfully cut the lining, or remove or damage any part of the carriages, or shall get into or get off of any train when in motion, or at any other place than the passengers' platform, or attempt to do so, every such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding forty shillings.

15. Passengers at the road stations will only be booked conditionally, that is to say, in case there shall be room in the train for which they are booked. If there shall not be room for all so booked, the passengers for the longer distance will be allowed the preference, and for the same distance they will have priority according to the number of their tickets.

16. The owners of goods and property of every description conveyed by the Railway, liable to injury from the weather, or from smoke sparks or fire, shall be responsible for their proper protection, unless under a special bargain with the Commissioners.

17. If any person shall load any carriage on the Railway so that the loading extends more than two feet beyond the flange of the wheels, or shall leave any carriage or goods or things under his charge to remain on the Railway, or in any of the depots or sidings thereof, to an obstruction of the working of the Railway, every such person for every such offence shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding forty shillings.
