

From these melancholy Reflections, I have thought it incumbent upon me to contribute my Mite to the Service of my Country, by suggesting to People in Power, the Necessity of making Provision in Time, against all Events, by casting their Eyes on some Persons, who (if not exact Copies) may resemble, at least in some Features, these inimitable Originals.

A P P E N D