Positions After Making Sir John French Reports Foe's Attack Has Ceased

Great Artillery Activity Prevails Around Ypres, However-French, Supported by Artillery, Have Made Good Progress.

LONDON. April 30, 11.15 p.m.—The semi-weekly report from the headquarters in the field of the British commander-in-chief, Field Marshal Sir John French, dated April 30, was given out here conight as

"The situation on our front has remained unchanged during the last 48 hours. The area in the neighborhood of Ypres has been the scene of great artillery activity thruout this period, but there have been no other operations so far as the British army is concerned. "On our immediate left the French made counter-attacks ported by our artillery fire, which made sensible progress.

'Yesterday a German aeroplane was attacked in the air and fired at by our guns and was brought down at our lines east of Ypres. "Successful mining operations have been carried out southwest of Wytschaete and in the neighborhood of Givenchy."

Today's is the Most Serious List Yet Published and Indicates That the Casualties Are Heavier Than at First Anticipated-More Than 200 Canadian Officers Now Are Killed, Wounded or Missing, Showing That Nearly Half in the First Contingent Are in the Casualties.

By JOHN A. MACLAREN.

It is feared that when the full list of officers who fell, were wounded or are missing, in the Battle of Langemarck is completed, it will include nearly half of those in the first Canadian division. Additional casualties received last night from Ottawa give the names of 55 attached practically to every infantry battalion.

In the latest list the Fifteenth Battalion composed entirely of the 48th Highlanders of Toronto, under the command of Lieut. Col. J. A. Currie, M.P., suffered most severely. Fourteen of Toronto's most efficient officers are wounded or missing. The 48th Highlanders went to France fied and unresisting soldiers were easi-
