

had it been for our Consistent Loyalist, if his "second thoughts" had not appeared before his first. May the fates preserve him from any third thoughts! for, as Dr. Watts writes, "I had rather spare my foe, and melt his heart with love."

F I N I S.