MONDAY

ratio

land

Ukra

disea

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

William Collier. William Collier, the eminent comesent the well-balanced cast that sup-ported him when he made his ap-Burkhardt and Gross, laugh creators. this comedy is now so well known son. that repetition will not be of value. 'Nothing But the Truth" is built for aughing purposes only. That it succeeds in its purpose is proven by the fact that for the return visit to Toronto it has one of the largest advance sales of the season. Matinees will be on Wednesday, Good Friday and Saturday. Ruth Chatterton at the Princess. Henry Miller will present Miss Ruth Chatterton at the Princess Theatre tonight and for the balance of the week in "Come Out of the Kitchen," the comedy by A. E. Thomas in which she appeared the greater part of last season at the Cohan Theatre in New York. She comes here with Bruce McRae and the original company. Miss Chatterton has come rapidly to the front and is today the most popular of the younger stars before the public. The three acts of "Come Out of the Kitchen" are laid in an old southern mansion, and the story concerns the young people of a fine old family who, for the time being, act who appear here this week, with the who appear here this week, who appear here this week, who appear here this week, which was a subject to the whole who appear here this week, which was a subject to the whole who appear here the whole who appear here this week.

Brown will present by special arrangement with W. A. Brady, at the Grand Opera House this week, is the most successful of all war plays. It was "The White Feather," which Albert successful of all war plays. It was originally presented in London, England, in the autumn of 1914, shortly after the war began, and ran for eighteen months. Mr. Brown took the piece on tour in the winter of 1915, and played it for fourteen months with enormous success, visiting every part of Canada except British Coum-shea's Theatre this week, decided to enter vaudeville. Miss Kennedy has a repertoire of new and delightful songs, besides a number of stunning gowns. Walter Brower, "The Jolly Jester," is a monologist whose talk deals carriedly with the subject. gowns. Walter Brower, "The Jolly Jester," is a monologist whose talk deals entirely with the subject of marriage. The Six Kirksmith Sisters have achieved fame as instrumentalists and singers, and are always welcome here, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Barry return with another of their come here, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Barry return with another of their Burglar." Mason and Keeler, in a comedy sketch; The Flying Russells, aerialists; Santly and Norton, two clever singers with unusually good voices; Sansone and Defilah, comedy cyclists, are also listed.

Loew's. Winsome Billie Burke will be seen in an entirely new character in "Eve's Daughter," the feature photodrama of day the girl suddenly bequeathed $15,000 by her millionaire father after a life of repression and hardship. Heading seven sterling vaudeville acts will be Thomas J. Ryan and Mary Richfield, in their latest edition of "Mag Haggerty's Father." Fred V. Bowers' sextet of musical comedy stars, in a novelty musical playlet, "Melody Lane"; Demarest and Doll, "The Man, the Girl and the Piano"; The Norveiles, presenting "At an Artist's dian who will be the attraction at the Royal Alexandra Theatre all this week, commencing tonight, will preStudio": The Three Rozelles, in a pearance here last October in his and Chadwick and Taylor, America's greatest of all farce comedies, "No- youngest colored entertainers, round thing But the Truth." The story of off one of the best bills of the sea-

> Peggy Hyland, the "movie" star, who has acquired a continental reputation, will headline the bill at the Hippodrome this week in "The Other Woman," a five-part Pathe feature, telling the story of a woman who lost her husband's love and then re-gained it "The Bungalow Girl" is a musical comedy which features Eugene Emmett and an all-star cast of supporting artists in songs, dances and chatter. Deodato, the illusionist, presents a new series of feats of magic and mystery that are decidedly unique. Charles Innes and Maude Ryan are natives of Toronto who are known as "The Original Fashion Plates of Vaudeville." They have new songs and dances. Harvey and Francis, in clever vaudeville specialties; Morlen, "The Unusual Accordeonist"; Bender and Heer, in gymnastic feats, are also billed > usual matinees. An entirely new show is promised, full of spice and is Drena Mack, a winsome prima

Charles Robinson, whose Big Parisian Flirts Company engagement opens Monday afternoon at the Star bia. Mr. Brown, in securing the Canadian rights, is yielding to innumerable requests from those who wish to see it once more. Matinees will be given on Wednesday, Good Friday, and Saturday. producing ability and has spared no expense to make this season's show beyond criticism. There are all kinds Musical comedy lost one of its expense to make this season's show brightest stars when Frances Kennedy, who headlines the bill at There will be five good vaudeville There will be five good vaudeville acts, gorgeous scenery and costumes that will create talk from the gown wearers.

Mary Garden at Regent. playlets, entitled "The not surpass, her first picture. It is tured, the plot being one of excellent influence and beauty.

Mae Marsh at Strand. For today, tomorrow and Wednes-day the feature of the Strand Theatre this week's offerings at Loew's Yonge will be the splendid Goldwyn produc-Street Theatre and Winter Garden. The story deals with the life of a lift and talented Mae Marsh in the

The Safest Matches in the World Also the Cheapest

EDDY'S "SILENT 500'S"

SAFEST because they are empregnated with a chemical solution which renders the stick "dead" immediately the match is extinguished.

CHEAPEST because there are more perfect matches to the single box than in any other box on the market.

War time economy and your own good sense will urge the necessity of buying none but EDDY'S MATCHES.

E. B. EDDY COMPANY

HULL, CANADA

title role. Never has this idol of the for the in every way than that of the women. The college will in this way lovely and lovable Polly, the herome of Margaret Mayo's world-famous of its foundation, which falls on May drama. As a spectacle "Polly of the Circus" is in a class by itself for claborateness. It is filled with numerous most realistic scenes of circus life, the most thrilling of which is a fire in the big grous tent and the stampede of the audience. It required a fully equipped circus to produce al

Mary Pickford When the public flock to the Allen Theatre all this week to witness Mary Pickford's newest Arteraft offering, "Amarily of Clothes-Line Alley," it will be found that once more the inomparable versatility of the star has evening, April 9. For years the highest oritical praise has been showered upon these celebrated peo-ple, and both have had remarkable great soprano is known in every household thrubut the length and breadth of the land, and the genius of breadth of the land, and the ground the late Duke of Westminster and the late Duke of Westmins Zimbalist was flashed around the world when he was astounding most critical audiences as a boy. The seat sale will open on Monday, April 1.

Symphony Orchestra. The coming Symphony Orchestra concert on April 4 recalls the gen-eral approval of the popular prices which have been instituted by the management. People who found it impossible to secure in advance a reserved seat for only fifty or twenty-five cents have been most enthusiasfive cents have been most enthusiastic, and increasing patronage is the result. The intention of the committee to trust the people to discern a good thing has been fully justified, and no advance in prices is contemplated for the next concert, altho Maud Powell has been engaged for this appearance.

"Mary's Ankle."

A characteristic A. H. Woods farce comedy is promised in "Mary's Ankle," the brilliant New York success by May Tully, which Mr. Woods cess by May Tully, which Mr. Woods will present at the Royal Alexandra Theatre all next week beginning Monday evening, April 1, matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, with the original New York cast and pro-

MAJOR FOULDS MENTIONED

Major A. Foulds, who has been mentioned in Sir Douglas Haig's despatches, graduated from Toronto University in 1904, and has been engaged in legal practice since. He enlisted in the 123rd Battalion (Grenadiers) in August, 1916, and has been in France with this battalion since March, 1917. Before going overseas with the Can-adian Expeditionary Force. Major Foulds was a member of the legal firm of Macdonald, Shepley, Donald and Mason of this city.

SOCIET

Lady Kemp, accompanied by Mrs. Scott Waldie, will return from the south and Atlantic City this week.
Capt. Colin Gibson, son of General Capt. Colin Gibson, is expected some this week. Mrs. Gibson, formerly Miss Florence Kerr, is also who is an old R.M.C. boy, won the Military Cross and the Croix de Guerre, and is a Chevalier of the Belgian Order of Leopold. Miss Gladys Edwards has returned from Chicago, where she has been visiting Mrs. Fisher Bally. Mr. Frederick Ogilvie Loft, lieutenant Canadian Forestry Corps and nox and Major Gairdner, who will archief of the Six Nation Indians, was rive from overseas this morning. Cap-of the war in Toronto. Sir Arthur H. Harris, K.B.E., director of overseas transport and re presentative in Canada of the British Ministry of Shipping, has returned to

The friends and old students of Queen's College, London, will be glad to hear that £1000 has been raised during the last year to endow a bed at the New Hospital for Women, the permanent memorial to Mrs. Garrett Anderson, M.D. It is interesting that the first college founded for the education of women should be the first among the group of colleges to en-

Col. H. C. Osborne, secretary to the the week end in town, the guest of Mrs. Coulson gave a dinner at the Hunt Club on Saturday night. Anything more tempting than the exhibition and sale of the Garden Craft Club which opened on Saturday tea was served in the large room at purch the back of Jenkins' old shop at the pital. comparable versatility of the star has been exemplified, it is announced costumes the gown and the tables of roses in the windows all the following things were than of Unity Blake in "Stella Maris" from former characterizations of the famous and world-beloved actress in Arteraft pictures.

Mae Marsh at Madison.

Mae Marsh at Madison.

Mae Marsh the most popular screen actress of the hour, will be seen at the Madison Theatre today, tomorrow and the Madison Theatre today, tomorrow and Wednesday in her latest Goldway in her l

Shop will be open all next week except Good Friday. Mrs. Bongard will spend Easter in Atlantic City. An engagement is announced be-tween Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon. A widow of Viscount Crichton. Mr. Charles Irvine Douglas has died at the Deanery, Bampton, Oxford-shire, at the age of eighty. He was the youngest son of Lord William Robert Keith Douglas of Grangemuir and Dunino, who sat as M.P. for Dumfriesshire from 1812 to 1832, and the nephew of the fifth and sixth Marquesses of Queensberry. Mr. Douglas married in 1862 Margaret Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. Arthur Holmstead of Osgoode Hall, Toronto. Capt. R. E. Gosse, Vancouver, an

and can be considered and can be considered all stores.

Its quality of deepening grayness to the former color in a few days, thus securing a preserved appearance, has enabled thousands to retain their position.

SOLD EVERYWHERE. Lockyer's gives health to the hair and restores the natural color. It cleanses the scalp and makes the most perfect

CONDUCTED BY MRS. EDMUND PHILLIPS

riage will take place at the house of

be in town for Easter at the Queen's.
Mrs. Frank B. Johnston and Miss formerly Miss Florence Kerr, is also Lucy McLean Howard are spending returning with him. Capt. Gibson, a few days in Buffalo Miss Winnie Williams, Moncton, N.B., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Burns, Lynnwood avenue. Dr. Goggin and Miss Muriel Goggin have left town to spend a short time at Preston Springs Captain D'Arcy Hinds is taking a deputation to meet Col. Herbert sennox and Major Gairdner, who will archief of the Six Nation Indians, was received recently by his majesty at Buckingham Palace and given a lengthy interview. Mr. Loft is now en route to Canada to raise recruits for the forestry corps in the reserve. Mrs. Loft has also been doing much patriotic work since the beginning of the war in Toronto.

> LEAGUE OF HELPERS HOLDS TWO BAZAARS

At Both Places Handsome Sums of Money Were Raised.

Two very successful bazaars in aid of soldiers overseas and local wounded were held on Saturday by children of The Toronto Sunday World League of Helpers. College street branch held theirs thru the kindness of Mrs. Day at 407 Spadina avenue.

Here a tempting array of home made cakes, preserves and other good things was presided over by Gwendolyn Vernon, who had worked hard for several weeks to make the hazaara success. A puppy, donated by a friend, was the most lively feature of this bazaar. Here there were very few bids for his majesty, and he is still await-ing an owner who will give in exchange some cash to help "our boys" Margaret Holtby, Kathleen Howden, Dorothy Hedgcock and Nellie Gilmour were assistants. Thirty dollars was and will not close till the 30th would be difficult to find. In the afternoon realized, which will be put towards the purchase of comforts for a local hos orner of Buchanan and Yonge streets, when the girls wore very becoming school was the scene of the second bazaar, held by members of the Parkadale daffoldi at the side, their aprons dale branch. A dozen stalls in all,

Aunt June of the Helpers League was very kindly entertained by Mrs. L. H. Green of Macdonell avenue.

The values offered at the big Easter Plano Sale of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Ltd., are really remarkable. Not only are the prices very, very low, but the easiest kind of terms can be arranged. The showrooms, Heintzman Hall, 193-5-7 Yonge street, will be open every evening during the sale.

CHURCH CELEBRATES.

R. B. Nelles Ends Second Year of Pastorate in Toronto.

To celebrate the close of the second year's pastorate of the Rev. R. B. Nelles, anniversary services were neld services were largely attended, and in the morning Rev. Mr. Nelles took as his subject "Self Denial," and in the evening "Power." At both morning and evening services a special appeal was made to the congregation by the to by the congregation in a hearty soldiers is announced as due to reach North Toronto station on two trains ment, Toronto military headquarters, received word last night that the trains bringing the war veterans left Mont-real at 6.15 and 7.30 o'clock last night, and were due to reach North Toronto station at 7.30 a.m. and 8.00 a.m. today. The men with names beginning with the letters from A to G will be on the first train, and those from H to Z, on the second The names of these men were published in The World on Saturday.

ARRIVING TODAY. Four Hundred Soldiers Wil Reach North Toronto.

The First of the Season

"DONLANDS" MAPLE SYRUP

Now on Sale at

Michie & Co., Limited

7 King Street West.

Place Your Orders Early as the Supply

Announcements

GARDEN CRAFT CLUB afternoon tea, sale of bird houses, new and interesting devices for vegetable and flower gardens, Easter novelties, service flags, at 424 Yonge street (Jenkins' old shop), Saturday, March 23 to March 30 (inclusive). In aid of prisoners' and soldiers' comforts. No entrance fee.

AVIATOR KILLED AT ENGLISH CAMP

Lieut. Charles M. Carpenter of Tor-onto Dies as Result of Accident.

College, but had spent many years in Chicago, where prior to his enlisting in the R.F.C. he was in the brokerage business. He emisted last spring, and received his training in Toronto and Texas, going overseas a week before Christmas. No details have as yet been received by his mother concerning how he met his death, but it is expected additional details will come to the process of the receiver of the receiver card.

ENSIGN CHAPTER, 1.O.D.E. Many Articles Needed By Soldier Are Sent Forward.

At the monthly meeting of the Canadian Ensign Chapter, LODE, held in related some of his experiences as a the Central Y.M.C.A., presided over by chaptain in the hospitals in England.

Safeguard your Health with

D. J. Collis Brownes CHLORODYNE

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS DIARRHOEA CHOLERA and DYSENTERY A True Palliative in

GOUT, NEURALGIA, RHEUMATISM, TOOTHACHE FEVER, CROUP, AGUE Of all Chemists

Prices in England: 1s 3d. 3s. 5e Always ask for a "Dr. Collis Browne" -Agents-LYMAN BROS. & CO., LIMITED TORONTO.

Crack-Proof Shirts and Collars. THE NEW WAY MAKES LINENS LAST-TRY IT. NEW METHOD LAUNDRY

well and Mrs. Kelly, amounted to $151. During the past month the sum of $277.75 had been raised for the Chapter by the various members, and the sum of $100 was given to the convenor of sox to continue the work. An address was given by Rev. Mr. Caswell, who

"He Has Never Ceased To Be the Lover"

Can you say this of your husband? Does he still think you "the prettiest girl in town"?

Or have you grown careless about the little things---omitted the frequent shampoo---neglected the constant massage?

Edna Kent Forbes will help you to take up these things again. She will keep you interested in them.

Read her "Beauty Chats" starting April first in The Toronto World.

Polly and Her Pals

WOTS THIS GOSSIP!

Be not discouraged, tho you own

For Farmer Kewp says poor folks, too,

Says he, "Fill flower pots with loam

And raise your garden truck at home!"

No broad and fertile acres-

May now be garden makers.

THE KEWPIE KORNER
By ROSE O'NEILL

ART FOR AUNT MAGGIE'S SAKE, IS TOO MUCH FOR ASHUR.

By Sterrett

HEAR ABOUT YOU AT IT I FIGGERED LEARNIN' ASHUR! ID OUGHTTA GIT ME THE GENTLE ART A UNDERSTUDY! OF CAMOUFLAGE?

Great Britain Rights Reserved. Registered in U S. Patent Office.