INSPECTOR MURRAY'S CLEVER WORK ON THE CHAIN OF EVIDENCE—HOW THE MEN FOUND THEIR WAY TO BUFFALO, WHERE DULLMAN WAS WAITING.

Inspector John Murray earned for himself a world-wide reputation by the able and astute manner in which he ran to earth and convicted J. McLaughlin at Woodstock, Ont., some years ago, but from that time the world learned last night the "Bitch" is not a patch on the case which the inspector has worked up in connection with the three dynamiters now awaiting trial at Welland on the charge of attempting to blow up the Welland Canal on April 21 last.

HUNTING FOR THE MOTIVE.

The details of the outrage are well known, but what was the motive? This was a puzzle to everybody. Inspector Murray has not to this, either day or night, since he took up the case. He has just returned from New York, Philadelphia, Richmond, Va., and Washington, and during his trip he has discovered the motive for attempting to destroy the canal.

WHO NOLAN AND WALSH ARE.

Just here is needed a little explanation of who the men charged with the crime are and what has been discovered as to their movements during the past few years.

FIRST TRIP TO AMERICA.

In 1894 they started from Dublin, Ireland, for New York, John Kowan, John Nolan and John Moran. When they reached New York they quartered with a man named John M. Kerr, 43 Reg St., New York. Nolan and Moran were two mechanics or fitters. All three were natives of Dublin. Nolan went to Philadelphia and got work at the Philadelphia and Reading R.R. Moran also got a job in Philadelphia. Nolan was particularly dark, knocked around the country. Finally, two years afterwards, the three returned to Dublin, Ireland. Here Moran went back to Ireland as he desired his intention to become an American citizen on May 17, 1898. (In returning to Ireland, they worked at their trade. In 1897 Edward Kennedy, a friend of Nolan, who was then living in and keeping a saloon in Washington, on 9th-street, went over to Ireland on a visit.

THEIR SECOND VISIT.

Finally, the result of their visit was that in November last Nolan, Moran and Walsh came to America again. Walsh worked for one year for the Buffalo Electric Trolley Company, in charge of men and horses, and got his certificate of discharge from the superintendent of the company on Oct. 17, 1898. (In returning to Ireland, they worked at their trade. In 1897 Edward Kennedy, a friend of Nolan, who was then living in and keeping a saloon in Washington, on 9th-street, went over to Ireland on a visit.

NEW YORK'S RECEIPTS FROM THE BOER DELEGATES.

Mayor Van Wyck and the Municipal Assembly of New York Tender a Warm Welcome to the Men From South Africa.

There Was a Large Crowd Around the City Hall—Delegate Fischer Appeals to the "Big Brother"—Wessels Says They Will Go on Fighting—Wolmarans Spoke in Dutch.

New York, May 17.—The principal event in connection with the visit to this city of the Boer delegates, Messrs. Wessels, Wolmarans and Fischer, occurred this afternoon, when they were received at the City Hall by Mayor Van Wyck, and in accordance with the resolution passed by the Municipal Assembly, officially welcomed to the city. Accompanied by the Reception Committee, and a delegation from the South African Club, the delegates drove from the Manhattan Hotel to the City Hall, where the Municipal Assembly and the Mayor were awaiting them.

Large Crowd Gathered.

In anticipation of their arrival, the customary large crowd around the City Hall was largely increased, and the services of a number of policemen were required to keep the people from the Mayor's office.

Mayor Van Wyck was at his desk when the delegation entered his office.

Kilian Van Rensselaer, chairman of the Reception Committee, introduced each of the delegates in turn to the Mayor, who said: "I am delighted to welcome you to the city of New York, and assure you that in America you will receive a cordial welcome from the liberty-loving people of this country. I desire to inform you that the representatives of the city of New York have asked me to extend you a welcome, and I welcome you on behalf of the people of the city."

Delegate Fischer's Response.

Delegate Fischer said: "This is to us an occasion of pleasure and pride. We are not so concerned as to take to ourselves the honor shown us, but we wish to show that we do not represent an unworthy people. We believe that no people can understand what it is to struggle for freedom, except a people which has gained its freedom by such a struggle."

Fischer Spoke to the Crowd.

On making their re-appearance, Mr. Fischer, standing on the steps of the City Hall, delivered a brief address, in which he said the people of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State were struggling for their liberty and wanted the sympathy of the people of America.

Wessels Spoke to the Crowd.

ONE THING SEEMS CLEAR, THAT THE BELEAGUERED TOWN STILL HOLDS OUT—BOERS GET INTO A TRAP.

Baden-Powell's Strategy Again to the Fore—He Killed 50 Boer Stormers and Captured Kruger's Grandson—The Situation.

London, May 18.—(3.30 a.m.)—England still waits with intense and almost breathless interest for news of the relief of Mafeking. A crowd, remarkable for the number of men in evening dress and including many ladies, huddled around the War Office after midnight, hoping for some announcement. Only reluctantly did the people disperse when the lobbies of the War Office were finally cleared with the fact that nothing had been received. One thing seems clear. The town still holds out. Were it otherwise the Boer forces would have been able to enter the town before the beleaguers would have reached the town.
