JIMMY COON STORIES

By Dr. Warren G. Partridge. Copyright 1917 by George Matthew Adams.

JIMMY COON'S MOTHER GIVES A RECEPTION.

Jimmy Coon didn't like being thrown into Mirror Pond by his friends a little bit. He soon rose to the surface and swam to the shore, for you know Jimmy is a good swimmer, as every boy and girl Coon ought to be. You see, the Coon family are good parents, and they give their chidren a splendid Coon education, including swimming lessons, even when they are very young.

In this respect they set an excellent example to humans. These swimming lessons save many lives. Father Coon says that the secret of success in life is "Safety First," and he has pounded that into the noddle of Jimmy. The first thing that Jimmy did, after climbing up the bank of Mirror Pond, dripping with water, was to shake himself very thdroughly—partly so that he wouldn't get pneumonia, and partly be-wouldn't get pneumonia, and partly be-wouldn't get pneumonia, and partly be-wise to the son stood in the reception. They came all the shower bath.

Jimmy was very successful in this effort, and all scattered swiftly to get away from the shower which he made. When Jimmy got home, his mother told him to go at once and invite all the neighbors and friends to a reception that she was going to give that evening to her new daughter-in-law, Jimmy Coon's Mate.

And Jimmy was very successful in this effort, and all scattered swiftly to get away from the shower which he made.

BELWOOD.—A very interesting Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of Miss Tovell, when the subject of "House Cleaning" was the theme for the afternoon, as well as a talk on the rotation of garden crops. The May meetings will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Lindsay on the fourth Thursday afternoon of the month.

CYNTHIA GREY'S

MAIL BOX

A Good Worry Cue.

Dear Miss Grey,—Will you please tell me through your page what size to make quilts for single beds and where they are most needed, at the sanatorium or hospitals? Will flammelette quilts be acceptable if in light colors? My youngest son is training in the States, and if I keep very busy it helps to keep me from worryling.

Ans.—What a fine worry-cure you have adopted, "Great-Grandmere,"

The Patriotic League was well attended at the home of Mrs. Garbet, when quilting was the work for the school, or else those who have qualified for first aid work by attending such classes as those conducted by a nursing dilvision of the St. John's lambulance Association. If you wish information regarding the latter, write to Mrs. J. A. Thomson, 404 Talbot street, London, Ont.

(2) To wash the gloves in clean gasoline, powder with French chalk, and dry by hanging them in the open air, is a very good way. Draw the gloves on the hands and wash as though bathing; be absolutely sure to eap away from an onen fire, gas jet, or any flame, during the process. Dust and wipe the chalk off thoroughly before wearing the gloves.

(3) No, candidly. I do not believe either the month, or the day, has anything to do with the "luck" of a marriage. Let us away with such weird superstition, child!

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

A New, Practical Design.

2293—This model is good for seersucker, gingham, percale, drill, jean, lawn and alpaca. The entire apron is cut in one piece, the belt ends being brought over the front from the back.

The Pattern is cut in 4 sizes: Small,
32-34 inches; Medium, 36-38 inches;
Large, 40-42 inches; Extra Large, 44-46 inches bust measure. Size Medium requires 3% yards of 36-inch material.

A pattern of this illustration mailed especially when your particular brand of keeping busy is to be of help and comfort to someone who needs it. Now about the quilts: I am informed that while they might not be available for use at Byron Sanatorium or the military hospitals, they may be sent to Hyman Hall, and you can rest assured of their being distributed where very much needed. Best to make them double, rather than for single beds. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Suggestive Question on the Uniform Lesson for Sunday, May 11, 1918. ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION, Age (if child's or misses' pattern)

Caution: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 33, 34, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 25, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from date of application.

ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION,

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

Jesus Faces the Cross. Mark 10:32-52.
QUESTIONS FOR TODAY:

1. Verse 32. May we, or not, arrive at a condition in this life, when no event will be able to "amaze" or make us "afraid?" Why?

2. Why would you say, or not. that Jesus knew from the beginning of his coming rejection by the Jews; and why did he not refer to it until the last year of his ministry?

3. Verses 33, 34. Did Jesus plan to have them reject him, or did he do his best to have them accept him?

Why?

Golden Text—He humbled himself, Linen is Dark.

Dear Miss Grey,—1. Will you kindly send in the inclosed stamped addressed envelope the cure for sciatica?

2. What will whiten a brown neck? Also what kind of oil to use for brittle finger-nails?

3. Can you or a reader tell me of anything that will whiten crochet work and a linen centrepiece that are very dark in color? I have tried leaving them on the grass in the sunshine, but without success.

Why?
Golden Text—He 'humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death, yea, the death of the cross. Phil. 2:8
THE DIVINE CHRIST PRE-EXISTED. It is true that Jesus of Nazareth was born of Mary and received his soul and spirit from his mother, as well as his body. The human Jesus Christ was just as much a man as any other man. He had all our natural appetites and passions and was subject to all the temptations of life as the rest of us. The Christ of God, however, which dwelt in Jesus, pre-existed, and was from all eternity. He came to the earth promptore of this kind has been discussed in the sunshine, but without success.

If you have a lonely's name to spare, will you kindly send it with the sclatica cure? I, too, received a letter full of "sulsh" in return for two parcels, but I am hoping to get better results from my next effort.

I sincerely hope I am not appropriating someone's nom de plume (is that correct?) It is my own nickname.

SISTER ANN.

correct?) It is my own nickname.

SISTER ANN.

Ans.—1. You must refer to something in Dr. Hirschberg's column, as no cure of this kind has been discussed in the Mail-Box recently. I am therefore inclosing your envelope to Dr. Hirshberg.

2. Faithful applications of cold cream, rubbed in after bathing should help; or try adding a little lemon juice to the cream; mix together well before applying to the skin. Olive oil is probably the Jesus, pre-existed, and was from all eternity. He came to the earth prompted by love and lived in the body of Jesus. It was a great condescension for him to do this. To leave his regal throne in heaven and come to the earth to dwell in the body of a baby, a boy and a man, was an act of stupendous humility, but this is what Christ did.
