Delaby has had bad advisers and that leaders in the Southern League, played a manship, but if the turf governors could round up some of the unscrupulous persons who frame crooked deals, and then get the lockey's to earry out the details, the racing game would be greatly benefited, is the good opinion of The N. Y. Sun. When a jockey pulls a horse there is always a motive, but it is usually a difficult matter to wring a confession from a guilty boy. Jockeys have been ruled off the turf for sharp practices, but in very few cases have they implicated the men who were really at the bottom of their troubles. It is the general belief that bookmakers and sure thing gamblers who bet heavily, are the ones who get to the jockeys, but as a rule the turf governors seldom probe to the bottom, so the matured schemers are never nun-

SUTTON V MORNINGSTAR.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 25.—George Sutton has named the Lenox Academy, New York City, as the place, and Jan. 28 as the date, on which he will play Ora Morningstar for the 18.2 balkline billiard championship emblem, held by Sutton, and a side bot of $250

Morningstar received news to-day that Sutton had named the date and place for the match. Morningstar challenged Sutton for the 18.2 championship emblem some time ago. He posted his $250 as a forfeit and side wager. Sutton ac-cepted Morningstar's challenge and covered his money inside of ten days, as called for by the rules. Morningstar plans to remain in St. Louis until about a week before the match, which will be a 500-point affair.

At Oakland R. F. Carman heads the winning owners with a total of $6120. H. E. Rowell comes next with $5735; then follow S. C. Hildreth with $565, U. Z. DeArman with $4520 and the Keene Brothers with $4620 and the Keene Brothers with $4015. Walter Miller stands in a class by himiself in the contest for riding honors with 42 winners, 19 seconds and 19 thirds, having been unplaced 45 times. Guy Hurns, who is making rapid strides, is second with 23 firsts, 15 seconds and 14 thirds. E. Lynch, who may ride in the east next year for the stable, trained by Frank D. Weir, is third, with 19 firsts, 18 seconds and 11 thirds. E. Dugan, who has been under suspension, is far down in the list with only 6 winners, followed by Buxton with only 5. Heatherton, a promising 90 pounder, has been attracting much attention and is believed to be a coming star.

Jockeys Mixed It Up. Jockeys Notter and Skirven mixed up in the running of the fifth race at New Orleans Tuesday and had something of a fight. Notter was fined $50 for striking Skirven with his whip during the running of the race, and Skirven was given $1 of the race, and Skirven was given and fine for striking Notter after the finish. A Wealthy Player.

Hoffman, not the Chicago idol, but the youngster Carke Griffith dug up, is the wealthiest player in the game to-day. His dad had money and Hoffman plays because he likes the game. He has been the oft-repeated "tower of strength" to the Highlanders, and if he plays this year ought to be one of the American League's sensations.

Hoffman formerly sojourned at Bridgeport during the ball season, and it was in the Connecticut village he jumped into an ancient and therefore respectable horse. An aged couple, intent on seeing the game, drove to a site back of centre

Feeling a trifle strong Hoffman drove a wicked liner into the territory and the ball, which was a home run, hit the aged specimen square between the eyes, killing lim instantly.

The S.P.C.A. took up the case to limit hits to two bases, but when Hoffman fanned three times the next day, the resolution was permanently laid upon the table.
