

ST. PATS BEAT TIGERS OVERTIME 4-3 SENATORS SURPRISE CANADIENS 1-0

ST. PATRICKS WIN OVERTIME GAME

Only Small Crowd at Arena
Expecting Tigers Would Be Easy.

Expecting to see St. Patrick's score an easy win in a hockey game, only about 2,000 turned up in the arena, Saturday night, but it took the Irishmen 55 minutes to even the Juniors, and they won out in a minute of overtime, 4-3. The victory was a surprise to many, as the local team had been expected to be easily defeated. The game was a close one, with the local team leading 3-0 at the end of the first period. The overtime game was a hard-fought one, with the local team leading 3-0 at the end of the first period. The overtime game was a hard-fought one, with the local team leading 3-0 at the end of the first period.

The rough house started early, and continued more or less all evening, and in spite of Referee Smeaton's efforts, Noble and Couture started a wild fencing bout with their sticks that wound up with both teams in a wild scramble. Randall distinguished himself by jumping to the top of the muck with his stick and crowding the referee instead of some of the Hamilton aggression. He was benched for the remainder of the evening. Dye's knee was in bad shape before the game, and he was used as little as possible, and he played on his gameness alone. Corbett Denny got out of bed to play, and he was badly needed. With the score 3-2 against St. Pats, Denny threw a shoulder out, and had to retire. On top of this, Randall got a match line, and Stuart had to move up to the forward line. McDonald of Montreal was tried at left wing, but was "nagoo," and only Dye was left on the bench, and he was sent out several times in an attempt to pull the game out of the fire. St. Pats looked like a beaten team for 60 minutes of the game, and were benched, 3-1, at the end of the first period. Denny's goal in this period was allowed when Referee Smeaton overruled Frank Warren, the goal judge. It speaks well for Warren's honesty that he was not overruled by a visiting referee. There was quite a discussion behind his cage on account of the decision. Denny made it 2-3 on a lone rush early in the second period, but Rodgers came in fast for a rebound of Malone's shot, and the visitors again took the lead, and the period ended 3-2. Then the "home brook" was staged, Denny having previously retired, and it looked all over but the shouting. Malone's shot was on the wing and found wanting, and to start the third period, Denny was on the wing. Hamilton had much the better of the last period, but Dye finally caught Rodgers napping, and he scored. "Stephen" when the final gong rang. Hamilton looked the fresher, but Cameron rushed after play had been going a minute, slipped around Couture and, with a nice backhand shot, fooled Lockhart.

With Canadiens losing the game, a notable game with Canadiens goes into the play-off with the following teams and positions:

OTTAWA SENATORS SCORE ONLY GOAL

Nighbor Passed to Denny in Third for Shot That Beat Canadiens.

Montreal, March 6.—Upsetting all the odds, the Ottawa Senators defeated the Canadiens one to nil at the Mount Royal Arena Saturday night in the last scheduled game of the N. H. L. season here. At the same time the St. Patrick's were winning from Hamilton in Toronto, with the result that tomorrow night's game in Toronto between St. Pats and Canadiens will decide the winners of the second half of the schedule and the team that will play off with the Ottawa Senators for the championship. Saturday night's game was one of the hardest fought here this season, with the winning goal being scored by Nighbor after sixteen minutes of play in the last period. The count came as a result of a combination play on the part of Nighbor and Denny, the latter netting the puck after Nighbor had passed it from behind the back of the Canadiens' defence. In spite of the exciting closeness it was not a good exhibition of hockey, the close checking and sticky condition of the ice precluding any chance for brilliant play.

Through the three periods the two teams fought with little advantage for either, the Ottawa having a little edge on the game, but being gradually worn down by their heavier opponents. The visitors played a desperate game from the start, showing more energy than in their two previous appearances here, but the Ottawa defence was too strong. The last-named team having already beaten the Canadiens here tomorrow night, and the Toronto players will play Beches, but not Linfield. Player James of the Victoria was found ineligible.
