Outfooted Granites All the Way, Smothered Them With a Withering Check and Win Round Seven to Roach 10 11

Granites in the second and final game

Granites in the second and final game last night and beat the Church street club 6 to 1, to the surprise of the housefull of fans. There was no fluke about the win. From the drop of the hat the Varsity outfit carried the fight to Granites, swept them off their feet, with the greatest burst of speed of the year and then smothered the Granite offensive with a withering check. Varsity won the round 7 to 3.

It was successful hockey. Granites at any time have never been decorated for team play and they looked bad last night by attempting to work thru the Varsity stonewall defence on individual plays and seldom more than two, when attacking. Granites stuck gamely to the hot page set by the blue and white team, but they were out-footed all evening. They tried to sweep into that persistent attack that carried them thru the season to the top hole in he league race, but it broke down badly under the merciless checking of Varsity.

Short End Again.

Granites entered the game 3-to-1 favorities to win the round and the backers of the curlers were offering 'to 5' to that they would be the work of the curlers were offering 'to 5' to that they would be the work of the curler and the short-end, bettors reaped a rich hardware the short-end and the short-end and work with-end and the short was next in the short was nex into the Granite invasion of the Varsity territory, but got little help, and Varsity pinned him down well. Munro was closely watched when on the effensive. Fox was another to have little success with his rushing. The rest could do nothing under the checking.

Granites opened the game by rushing right to the Varsity end, but the bluesweatered team went back at them with the checking and put the lid down. Then Varsity opened a burst of speed that left the fans gasping, and were tireless with their rushes. The first few minutes of play was mid-lee stuff. Romeril broke up sevaral Varsity attempts to get the scoring flivver going. Ramsay and Sullivan got the first combination going, and Sullivan piled a hot one on Roach's pads. Ramsay had raced in and shoved the rebound in the net, but it was called back for offside. It was a narrow one and might just as well have been called legal.

Varsity then opened the flood gates. They tore in two and three at a time, and Granites were fortunate that the avalanche of goals did not start right here. Carson and Fox went off together for a little tilt with the sticks. Watson the defence and pelted in a hot one, Mc-

Wright and Brown were scoring kids.

Brown camped at the mouth to get a pass for one. Brown sailed up and slipped Wright a pass for the next. The speed
