

ety, encourage you to press upon every member of the Church the importance of actively assisting a society which expends its means in building up the Church of your Fathers, extending its borders and bringing the blessings of the Gospel within the reach of all.

CHARLOTTETOWN.—The library has been increased by a liberal donation of 64 volumes from the Bishop of the Diocese, which with some additional works ordered last year, make the present revised catalogue contain 707 volumes, value £160. It contains, through the united and praiseworthy efforts of members of the church a valuable collection of popular, scientific, moral and religious works, well suited to general as well as family reading and only requires the steady support of a reading public to become one of the first general church-Libraries in the provinces.

A subscription list has been opened for the erection of a Parsonage, amounting to £86, including the liberal donation of £50 from Miss Fanning. To this object your Committee have voted the sum of £40, which with £18 4s from the Ladies' Branch makes the sum of £144 4s. already contributed by subscription and otherwise to this desirable purpose.

The Sacramental collections for the poor amount to £89 2s. 10½d, collections after Sermons for Religious, missionary and church objects £54 14s. 1d, which with £84 13s. 9d. expended in the introduction of Gas into St. Paul's, and the Infant School House, £21 collected on Sunday evenings in aid of the Light and £187 3s. pew assessment and rents for the support of the church and the due celebration of divine service, independent of the assistant minister's salary, and annual contributions to missionary and religious objects, make in all the sum of £436 17s. 9d. raised by the members of the congregation.

Your Committee also are pleased to observe, that the sum of £700 (less £10 which is still wanting to complete the Parish half-certificate) has been contributed
