CHILDREN AT PLAY. Of blame them not for their joyans strain,
For this is their hour of the c.
And soon the pall of manhood's care
Will cover their gayay.
Then let their laugh be loud and clear,—
Chide not that lattle band.
Umse mirth must soon, alse, give way
To Tune's unsparing hand.

They to hear their with, clear loves
Ring out on the winty air,—
They tell the joys which once were outs,
Eir we knew this world of care t
And the lively scenes of the schaal boy sport
In Memory's glass are shown,
And a thousand scenes are remembered now,
Which we thought for ever flown.

Give them their fleeting bour of mirth,
For the clouds are gathering naw,
Which will burst in fury on their beads,
And furrow each gentle brow.
Ant care will be where jey now sits,
And thoms where flowers appear;
O, childe them not—O, childe them not!
For soon will come little's care.

THE SAILOR'S GRAVE. Not in the church-yard shall be sleep, Amid the silent gloom; His home was on the mighty deep, And there shall be his tomb.

He lov'd his own bright, deep blue sen. O'er it he lov'd to roam. And now his winding sheet shall be That same bright ocean's foam.

No village bell shall tell for him Its mournful, solemn dirgo; The winds shall chaunt a requiem-To him beneath the surge.

For him break not the grassy turf, Nor turn the dewy sod; His dust shall rest beneath the surf, His spirit with its God.

Ilis spirit with its God.

IMMORTALITY.—Some of the houses in Edinburgh are eleven stores high, and in one of these near that exquiste green slope from the Castleesplanade Johnson, visited Boswell; and here also David Hume, the historian and philosopher, resided for many years till he removed into the oldest equare of the New Town. A recent trayeller toiling, up stairs, asked an eld wohan, who was conveying a pitcher of water to her aerial domicile in the building, whether she could tell him in which story David Hume lodged. "Dawid Hume! Dawid Hume! Pawid Hume! Toweller this echteen year, and never mind sie a name Dawid Hume is no on this stair." To which he gently replied, in Foot's phraseology, that it was "of no consequence," and beat a retreat.

Te Professor Holloway.

Sin—Mr. Ryan, the well known proprietor of the Hotel next door to me, land two very Bad Legs, one with eight ulcers on it, the other with three, they were in such a fearful state that the effluvia from them was very great. Some time since he made a journey to Dublin for the purpose of consulting some of the most emiment profession.1 men, but returned home to his family with the choice of two alternatives—to have both Legs amputated, or die!—On his way home he met a gentleman in the Coach who recommended the use of Helloway's Pills and Ontment, which he had recourse to, and was perfectly cured by their means.
