GLORIOUS ENDING NOT FAR DISTANT, SAYS FRENCH

Field Marshal Sir John French issued his last official order as commanding officer of the British forces in France on Saturday. He expressed his thanks to the officers and men for the way in which they have performed their tasks and paid a warm tribute to their devotion and heroism. He said that he had the firmest conviction that a glorious ending is not far distant.

COOL DISTRUST OF FOLKS AT HOME

MODERN INSTANCE OF A PROPHET'S HONOR AND WHERE IT IS TO BE FOUND.

When a middle-aged Scot was told that Mr. J. M. Barrie had made a great name in London as a writer he responded: "I'll no believe it. Man, it canna be true. He went to school w' me." It is one of the sorrows of genius that the folks at home are an unbelievable and grudging crew. For example, we in Canada would not take the trouble of going to hear the piano-playing of William Schumann, but a man named Koryczakewitch would drag us out on the coldest night. It is the cult of the villain, the perpetual approval of the foreigner. We even wait for the opinion of the man who dodges into town, plays once and dodges out. We seem to believe, first, that he has an opinion on any subject—a wild hypothesis—and secondly, that he is waiting to express it. People have been known to buy a piano of a certain make because Koryczakewitch played that instrument and issued a glowing testimonial to its value. They did not know that the opinion was often a matter of bargain. The Gourlay Piano is a Canadian product, built by Canadian capital and Canadian labor. The manufacturers have for twelve years been making a distinctive high-grade instrument. Their success has proved the merit of the Gourlay. And now a glowing testimonial from visiting foreign artists. The Gourlay testimonial comes from the Canadian household.

SCHUMANN-HEINK MAKES GOOD ALLEGED SHORTAGE OF SON

Paterson, N. J., Dec. 20.—Madame Schumann-Heink, prima donna, has made complete restitution to the city of Paterson for funds alleged to have been stolen from the accounts of the city of Recorder James P. Carroll by her son, Henry Schumann-Heink. A check was deposited with the finance board of the city by the attorneys for Madame Schumann-Heink, a number of the firm personally turned the check over to the city. He maintained, however, that Schumann-Heink was innocent of any wrongdoing, holding that the alleged shortage in the accounts was due to faulty bookkeeping methods.

Two months ago Henry Schumann-Heink, having held the position of recorder for two years, was suspended by Mr. Carroll on order of the police commission. His books were audited and a charge of embezzlement was made against him. He left the city to be arraigned on the charge, which he was released on bail. While he is still out on bail there is a general feeling here that inasmuch as the shortage has now been made up and Schumann-Heink is not prosecuted, it is believed that the young man is in the west.

POLES ARE DRILLING

Military Activity Reported to United States Government

New York, Dec. 20.—Camps for the military training of Poles have been established in various centres throughout the United States, according to Sub-Lieut. Wacław Stupnicki, who is in command of one of the camps near Haverstraw, N. Y. He estimates that 8,000 Poles have been drilled or are now drilling.

The purpose of the drilling, he says, is to prepare the Poles in the United States to free Poland or to defend the United States in war.

The camp near Haverstraw is conducted under the auspices of the Polish Young Men's Military Association, which has branches in Boston, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities. Workingmen from New York, Philadelphia and adjacent territory are being drilled there. The men are given training for two weeks and are then sent back to their work. They are directed to gather little groups of Poles about them and instruct them in military duties.

From fifteen to two hundred men are trained in the Haverstraw camp at a time. The existence of the camp has been reported to U. S. Attorney-General Gregory.
