CHANGE TO JOIN MOUNTED RIFLES
 Major McLean, Here Today, Wants 30 Men—Army Service Corps Here to be Recruited

Once again the call sounds for men in St. John to serve their king and country overseas. Major C. H. McLean, squadron commander of the 8th Mounted Rifles, stationed at Amherst, N. S., was in the city today, and said that he required about thirty men for his unit. He would like to hear from any volunteers. They could address applications to him at Amherst.

Regarding the draft from the 6th for overseas duty with the 25th Battalion, Major McLean said that there had been a fine spirit of willingness on the part of the men to serve where they were needed. Of course the preference was for mounted duty, but that was not the desire of those who joined the colors of the 25th. As to what the future plans of this unit were, regarding their summer training and location, Major McLean was unable to say, but they were progressing most favorably in their drill and today were at a high standard of efficiency.

Army Service Corps
 That No. 7 Co. C. A. S. C. is to be brought back to its former strength before the depletion of the ranks by the transfer of so many of the unit to No. 5 Co. under Major P. T. McKean, is the belief of those in touch with militia circles in St. John. Some local provisional officers are now taking a course in Halifax to qualify for commissions and the expectation is that when this has been completed a call for volunteers will be made to join the unit which will be mustered at Sussex. The officer commanding the company at present is Lieut. Gunter Frederick, but there are only a few men left to its strength. Lieut. Hendy of Halifax, of the C. P. A. S. C. is now in Sussex, directing the army service operations there, and is being assisted by Staff Sergeant Patterson, Quartermaster Sergeant Devennie and others, while S. Q. M. Sergeant Jennings is attending to the local office work.

Regimental Badges
 Thus far only a few citizens have subscribed to the fund for the purchase of the badges for the 26th. Further donations could be welcomed, and the Women's Canadian Club would be glad to receive contributions.
Many Soldiers Ill
 Amherst News—Owing to the increased number of sick soldiers in our hospitals, it has been found necessary to procure the services of another building for the use of the military. This will make three buildings devoted to a medicinal cause outside of the regular Highland View Hospital. The house recently secured for this purpose will be known as the "Convalescent Hospital."

Lieut. Tingley Wounded
 Lieutenant Frank Harvey Tingley, wounded in France, is the youngest son of A. J. Tingley, the well known I. C. official of Moncton and Mrs. Tingley, and is twenty-four years of age. Since the Canadian expedition left Canada last fall, he has held various responsible positions in connection with the 2nd Brigade of Artillery, to which the Moncton Battery belongs, and for several months past has been attached to the 8th Battery under Major Anderson. When last heard from, he was acting as "Observing Officer" of the 8th, being stationed in a special "dig-out" a few yards behind the infantry trenches and about a mile from the position occupied by the guns of the battery.

KINGSTON WILL EDUCATE CHILDREN OF HER SONS WHO DIE AT FRONT
 Kingston, Ont., May 11—The city council last night decided to erect an incinerator for the burning of the city's garbage. The civic utilities will consume and pay for all the steam generated. The council also decided to give to the children of all Kingston soldiers killed at the front a high school education.

POLICE FORCE CHANGES
 Two more policemen were missing from the local ranks this morning. Policemen Jones and Wade. The former left for his home in Woodstock, owing to his wife's illness. Jones joined the force about two months ago, and Wade last December.
 Martin R. Bowes was sworn in this morning and will join the force immediately, replacing ex-policeman Wade. He is a resident of Golden Grove, and is quite well known throughout the city.

TO THE CAMPS
 Yesterday's Amherst News says:—Eighty-two of the 6th Mounted Rifles will leave this week for Sussex to go into camp in that town prior to being sent to France as reinforcements to the Canadian Regiments that suffered such heavy losses in the battle of Ypres. One hundred and twenty-five men of the 40th Battalion are under orders, so it is understood, to leave Amherst this week. From all parts of Nova Scotia, men in this battalion have received orders to mobilize at the huge military camp at Aldershot.

ANOTHER SUCCESS
 The three act comedy, The Chaparron, so successfully presented last week in the Seaman's Institute for the benefit of the Girls' Club of the Playgrounds Association was repeated last evening in City Hall, Carleton. There was a large attendance and the audience greatly enjoyed the evening. Miss Emma Heffer, under whose direction the entertainment was given deserves great credit for the success with which it was presented.

CARDS TOURNAMENT
 In their rooms in Coburg street last evening the members of St. John Council, K. of C. conducted a successful cards tournament. There were many entries, and much interest was evinced in the play. J. O'Neill won. The prize was a fountain pen.

PLAN TO GET THE FIELD KITCHENS
 Project of Presenting Four to 26th Battalion Being Taken Up Energetically

Today's despatches contain the information that Lieut.-Governor MacGregor of Nova Scotia had presented to the Nova Scotia regiment field-kitchen equipments, the gift of the people of that province. While the sister province has "stolen a march" on New Brunswick in this splendid contribution, there is a movement on foot to make a similar gift to Colonel McAvity's men. At a meeting held a few mornings ago, a local committee was selected to take preliminary steps in organizing a campaign that should place four field-kitchens with the 26th Battalion, if not before it sails for the old country, at least before it crosses the channel into the war zone. The plan is to have small but energetic committees in each of the cities and important towns of the province who will solicit and receive contributions. The whole scheme will be explained through the medium of operating newspapers, and by printed matter generally. It is also hoped to enlist the assistance of the motion picture theatres of New Brunswick and thus bring the matter before everybody in a short space of time.

The amount necessary to purchase four field-kitchens is slightly in excess of $5,000, and really not a large sum when the whole province of New Brunswick is the field of operation. The funds, it is thought, should be forthcoming in a short space of time and, indeed, in order to secure them in good season, the cash should be quite readily subscribed. The advantages and comforts brought about by the inclusion of field-kitchens in a regimental outfit are obvious. Instead of men eating out of their haversacks until it is possible to light fires and secure hot food, these marching kitchens with fires continually burning, dispense hot soups and stews to the men at all hours if required, but particularly the mid-day meal, which, under ordinary army conditions, would be a cold one. It is thought, therefore, that if the sum of $5,000 will ensure this to our boys of the 26th Battalion, eager to stand in defence of dear ones at home, it will be quickly subscribed. The campaign has really not commenced yet, but will be heard of more within the next few days.

Oak Hall Says to You, Sir---
 That whether you are a young man, an old man, or a middle-aged man, if you get less than your money's worth in a suit of clothes this spring, the fault will be yours—and yours only.
 By money's worth, we mean the fullest and completest value in fabric, fit and fashion that money can buy for you.
 Most men's clothing stores that we know of sell pretty good clothing.
 But no other men's clothing store holds to the standard of the Oak Hall store in choice of fabrics and in actual detail of the making.
 Oak Hall's men's suits, whether high-priced or low-priced, have to be better, and we see to it that they are better. The "pretty good" kind won't do.
 We might write a lot of things about the rare assortment of fabrics shown here, of the worsteds, tweeds and much favored serges; of the thousand and one variations of color and diversities of design; of the gradations of styles to suit the years of the wearer, from the chap just bidding farewell to knickers, all the way up to the settled man of years, but common sense will tell you that we will not rest satisfied with anything less than an assortment in which no man can fail to satisfy himself.

After Moving
 you will surely want a few pieces of new furniture, a rug, linoleum or something else to brighten up the home and place your furnishings more in keeping with the freshly-decorated rooms.
 There will never be a better opportunity to purchase furniture or carpets than is afforded right now, when our stock has all been purchased at rock-bottom prices, and is being sold on the same basis.
 Owing to increased cost of production, an advance in manufacturers' prices is inevitable, and we do not know from day to day how long our present prices will obtain, so that a purchase of house furnishings now is sure to prove a profitable investment, and one on which you will congratulate yourself in the future.
