

DOHERTY PLEADS NOT GUILTY IN ALBERT MURDER

Grand Jury Brings in True Bill in Slaying of Howard Cairns

ALLEGED TALK OF ACCUSED ADMITTED

Dr. Carnwath Tells of Statement Made by Prisoner After Crime

HOPWELL HILL, Sept. 2.—At the September session of the Albert Circuit Court, which opened at the shire town this morning, the grand jury brought in a true bill against Lawrence Doherty, charged with the murder of Howard R. Cairns, of Harvey, Albert county, on the night of August 11. The grand jury were out two hours and a half, including recess for luncheon.

By the closing hour of court tonight, the case, which is attracting widespread interest, had made good progress, the petit jury being secured and some testimony taken for the Crown. The evidence included alleged remarks made by Doherty the night of the tragedy in which he had stated he had killed Cairns.

REPORT TRUE BILL. The grand jury retired shortly before noon and returned at 2.30 p. m., the foreman, Edward Hickey, reporting a true bill. After the grand jury were discharged, Doherty was brought into court and placed in the dock. To the arraignment on the charge of murder read by the clerk of the court, the prisoner replied in an emphatic manner: "Not guilty."

DOCTOR TESTIFIES. Dr. Carnwath gave similar evidence to that given by him at the preliminary examination, supplemented by a statement of what he said Doherty had told the coroner, Dr. Murray, in witness's presence, Doherty, witness said, saying in reference to Cairns, "I killed him. If I had not killed him he would have killed me. I always heard 'Howie' was treacherous and I was ready for him. If I had not killed him I would have been in hell now instead of here."

At the conclusion of Dr. Carnwath's testimony court adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

CHARLOTTE CASE. ST. ANDREWS, N. B., Sept. 2.—Alfred Arsenault, charged with the murder of Alpheus Hainspecker, 70-year-old store-keeper of Bethel, near St. George, will be up for trial at the sitting of the Charlotte county court, which opens here on Tuesday, Sept. 8. Two local cases will also be tried. Mr. Justice Byrne will preside, and it will adjourn to Monday.

This Is Band Concert Night For River Glade Auto Fund

AN EXCELLENT program of music will be given by St. Mary's band, playing 40 strong, in King Square tonight. The concert is being given entirely for the purpose of raising money for the fund to buy an automobile for the tubercular patients of River Glade Sanatorium. Collectors will pass among the crowds.

The band concert tonight should prove the means of bringing in the contributions of people who may, perhaps, not wish to hand in a small sum to the newspaper office. Every contribution is gratefully received, and if at the concert tonight a sufficient sum is realized it will be possible for the sanatorium patients to ride in their automobile before the cold weather comes.

CONCERT PROGRAM. The program for the concert, which will be directed by Bandmaster Williams, is announced as follows: O Canada. March—Men of Moss. Marchal Overture—Jolly Robbers. Supper. Waltz—Thoughts. Alford Popular number.

be His Honor's first court in St. Andrews since his elevation to the bench. The Crown prosecutor will be J. B. McNair, of Fredericton. N. Marks Mills, K.C., of St. Stephen, who was first named to represent the Crown in the Hainspecker murder case, is not well enough to appear at the present time.

The two local cases to be heard are Mowat versus Denley and the Crown versus Somers and Lord. In the case of Mowat versus Mrs. Richard Dinley, Miss G. Helen Mowat is suing Mrs. Dinley for alleged depositions, and the case against Somers and Lord is one of alleged criminal assault.

HAS INSECT ZOO. New York Museum Curator Opens Odd Menagerie—Expects 5,000 Specimens.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The most amazing zoo in the world—a 40-acre menagerie of insect life—has been opened to the public in Inverrary park near Tuxedo, N. Y. Dr. Frank E. Lutz, curator of entomology of the American Museum of Natural History, is back of the project. It is Lutz's intention to have 5,000 kinds of insects in the zoo. More than 4,000 species of insects for the zoo were taken by Lutz from the back yard of his home in Ramsey, N. J. Lutz says there's continual warfare in the insect world, more fierce and deadly than any ever fought by man.

FAIRVILLE W. M. S. RESUMES MEETINGS

Hears Messages From Toronto and Papers by Local Members of Society.

The W. M. S. of the Fairville United church reopened its sessions yesterday after a summer vacation with a well attended meeting at the parsonage. The members were cordially received by Mrs. Pinkerton, wife of the new pastor, Rev. J. J. Pinkerton. Mrs. Dane Crosby, president, was in the chair and led the devotional service, assisted by Mrs. O. D. Hanson, Mrs. William McCavour and Mrs. Pinkerton.

Mrs. Arthur McColegan, corresponding secretary, read a letter from Mrs. S. Phillips, of Toronto, informing the meeting that the monthly letter would now be published as a part of the women's work in the new missionary magazine which will be brought out by the United Church Missionary Board instead of the Missionary Outlook, which had been the official organ of the former Methodist Church of Canada for several years. The other societies' magazines will lose their identity in the larger endeavor, the meeting was informed.

Mrs. M. M. Laval, of Toronto, of the Board of Managers, sent a message asking for increased interest in the work. Several papers were
