SPORT NEWS OF A DAY, HOME AND ABROAD

BOWLING.

Travelers Won.
A very interesting bowling match took place last evening on the G. W. V. A. alleys, when two teams, one representing the travelers and the other the office staff of the T. H. Estabrooks Co. Ltd., struggled to obtain leadership which, at the finish, showed the travelers victorious by fifteen pins. In the first two strings, the office staff bowlers were leading but the travelers were able to "talk" them into the ditch.

The result, in figures, was as follows:

Simpson Turns Pro.
New York, Dec. 15—Robert I. Simpson, world's record-holder in the 120 yard high hurdles, today tendered his resignation as an amateur to the American Athletic Union. He has accepted a position as coach of the University of Missouri track team.

BASEBALL.
Indianapolis Club Sold.
Indianapolis, Dec. 15—Controlling interest of the Indianapolis American Association Baseball Club has been transferred to William C. Smith of South Norwalk, Conn., formerly part owner of the club, according to James C. McGill, former president of the club.
W. C. Smith, Jr., son of the new owner, will be made vice-president, and will come to Indianapolis in January to assume charge of the club. Jack Hendricks will remain manager of the team, and William E. Clauer, present secretary of the club, will continue in that capacity.

Let Them Battle Say Mays.
New York, Dec. 15—Carl Mays, who is the bone of contention in the bitter fight in the American League, is taking life easy, while the New York club and President Ban Johnson are battling in the courts about him. Secretary Ban Johnson says that the Mays fight will continue in that capacity.
Sparrow of the Killies received a letter from Mays today. The submarine singer is hunting and fishing out near his home in Mansfield, Mo. Mays lives like a man of leisure.
He has built a hunting lodge out in the wild Missouri hills and lives close to nature, while the whole baseball world is upset over his affairs. Far away from the lawyers and the ball field, Mays spends his time hunting and fishing and keeping himself in condition for next season's campaign.
The Killies expect Mays to win a lot of games for them next season. He will have to win a great many to prove that he is worth all the rumpus he has caused in baseball circles.

THE RING.
Now Wants $500,000.
Jack Keenan, manager of Jack Dempsey, says that if the stadium in Paris draws $1,000,000 for the Carpenter Dempsey fight he will demand fifty per cent of it.
Dempsey and Mehan.
San Francisco, Dec. 15—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will fight Willie Mehan here next week, providing Mehan meanwhile departs from his present quarters.

SANSOM-PONDER.
At St. Mary's Church, South Devon, on Tuesday, Rev. G. W. Fisher united in marriage Miss Dorothy Gladys Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Forbes, of South Devon, and Theodore William Sansom of Newmarket. Mr. and Mrs. Sansom will spend their honeymoon in St. John.
