IN THE CHURCHES

In the First Presbyterian church, west side, yesterday, the services were conducted by Prof. Kierstead, of the U. N. B.

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton, in the Congregational church, preached at both services. In the evening the second of the series of illustrated sermons was given, the subject being The Prince of Parables. Mrs. Perry sang during the evening.

In St. Luke's church there was special music. Mr. Walker, purser of H. M. C. S. Canada, sang The Peace of God at the morning service and Ashford's setting of Abide With Me, in the evening. Mr. Walker was for some years soloist at St. Paul's church, Halifax.

The pastor of German street Baptist church, Rev. F. S. Porter, spoke in the morning on Our New Institute; in the evening on The Seaman's Institute last evening. Morton Smith presided and gave a helpful address. Mr. Walker sang, and Mrs. Thompson played several selections. On Saturday evening, the temperance meeting was well attended and twenty-four pledges were taken. Rev. R. S. Craig gave the address, and Mrs. Seymour presided.

R. H. Parsons, retiring superintendent of the Ludlow street Baptist Sunday school was given a gold-mounted fountain pen yesterday. The presentation was made by Deacon John F. Ring.

Break in Water Main. A break in a twenty-four inch water main in the section which passes through Fernhill cemetery occurred on Saturday evening, about nine o'clock, and after arduous work in the biting cold repairs were completed on Sunday night at twelve o'clock. The break was discovered immediately as Commissioner Wigmore and Clarence Goldsmith, the water works expert, were making tests at the time and noticed the lessened pressure. Gangs of men were rushed to the scene of the
