FREDERICTON WEDDING. At Brunswick Baptist Parsonage, Fredericton, on Monday, Miss Annie Muller, of Woodstock, was united in marriage to William Growley, of Fredericton.

NOVELTY SHOWER. Friends of Miss Vera Cusick gathered last evening at her home in Marsh road and gave her a novelty shower. She received many articles of a useful and valuable nature which will be greatly appreciated after an interesting nuptial event to take place in a day or two. There were about fifty young people present and all enjoyed a good time.

LINEN SHOWER. At the home of Miss Flossie McCarthy, in Union street, last evening, a linen shower was given in honor of Miss Nan Cormier, who is to be the principal in a pleasing event in the near future. The bride-to-be was made the recipient of many appropriate and useful remembrances. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all in attendance.

POLICE REPORTS. Arthur Love, a coachman, has been reported by the I. C. R. police for going beyond the standard to coachmen at the Union Depot. It is alleged that he did so twice yesterday.

Thomas Dean has been reported by the I. C. R. police for obstructing the government grounds in Pond street with a wagon, and refusing to move it when requested to do so.

J. Jacobson & Co. has been reported for obstructing Pond street with a quantity of junk.

JAMES M. KEITH DEAD. A well-known resident of Kennecott Island passed away at his home at eleven o'clock on Monday night in the person of James M. Keith, at the age of sixty years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. H. J. Short, of St. John, and Miss Mabel at home; also two sons, Louis and Leonard, at home. His sisters are Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Craig, of Boston; Mrs. David White, of St. John, and Mrs. John Morrow, of Kennecott Island. His brothers are: Joseph, of Boston, and Robert, of St. John. For years he was an active member of the Orange Lodge of Sea Dog Cove. He was a prosperous farmer, and was highly respected by all. The funeral will be on Wednesday afternoon. Buses will leave Adelaide street at 1:15 to connect with the steamer "Magie" Miller.

MONKTON PROPERTY DEAL. S. T. Harrison of Saturday closed one of the biggest deals in real estate that has been reported in the Moncton section. The sale of the Winter property on the north side of Union street, to an English syndicate. The property includes about 100 acres and the location is most desirable for residential purposes, with Mary's Home just on the east, and the water in the rear. The price is not stated but it is understood to be very satisfactory. The purchasing company is expected to be a strong one financially, and comprehensive plans are in course of preparation for laying out streets and sewerage, etc., but these are not yet completed. The company, it is stated, is paying for the purchase of lots with money for building purposes, and residences of superior class will be erected.

REV. LEB. MCKEIL OF FAIRVILLE DEAD. Beloved Anglican Clergyman Was Almost Oldest in Province—Funeral on Thursday

The death of Rev. LeBaron W. McKel, for many years the beloved pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, and one of the oldest Anglican priests in New Brunswick, occurred this morning. His illness had been a lingering one and it was known for some days that the end was near. With loved and loving ones around him he passed away at half past six o'clock.

Rev. Mr. McKel was born in Kings County, N. B., in 1841, and was therefore seventy-one years old. He received his college education in Kings College, Windsor, N. S., and was graduated there in 1864. In the next year he was ordained by the late Bishop Medley in Fredericton. He had labored faithfully in the forty-seven years that have followed, in Bahrurst, Douglas and Bright, St. Martins and Fredericton, coming to Lancaster eighteen years ago and there remaining as rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd until a few weeks ago, when he retired and was succeeded by Rev. Walter P. Dunham. On the occasion of his retirement his congregation paid him a marked tribute of love and respect. He had endeavored himself to them all by his public qualities, as he had won the esteem of the whole community.

Rev. Mr. McKel married Annie Ellen Rudolf of Lunenburg, who died seven years ago. There survive three sons—Cecil, Medley, and Rudolf, and one daughter, Doris, at home, and two married daughters, Mrs. M. Zwicker and Mrs. A. H. Rudolf of Lunenburg. There are also four brothers—Frederick, Albert, Ed ward and George, and three sisters, Mrs. D. A. Arams, Mrs. E. Ferguson and Mrs. E. Hibben. For all there will be deep sympathy shown by many friends.

On Thursday morning at a quarter past seven o'clock the body will be taken from his residence to the church, where he so long labored in his Master's work. There will be Holy Communion served at eight o'clock and thereafter until the time of the funeral service at half past two that afternoon the clergymen of the diocese will take watch beside the bier. Interment will be in the Church of the Good Shepherd cemetery, Manawagonish road.

IN THE POLICE COURT

One prisoner was arraigned in the police court this morning and was fined $8 or thirty days in jail on the charge of drunkenness. The fine was allowed to stand on condition that he take the pledge for one year. Two small boys, John O'Brien and John Collins, charged with discharging rifles near the golf links on Sunday last, pleaded guilty, but said that they were just firing off the rifles to test them. They were allowed to go on condition that they would not repeat the offense.

Herbert Nice, charged with blasting rock in Clarendon street last week, pleaded guilty. Policeman Ward told of rock having been sent in the air over the tops of houses, into Main street and doing damage to several houses. The damage to one house amounted to $50. Nice said that he had made good the damage done. A fine of $50 was struck against him and allowed to stand.

FATHER OF CANADIAN CLUBS HERE

Charles R. McCullough of Hamilton an Interesting Visitor

CONFEDERATION ANNIVERSARY

He Has Proposed That the Fredericton Convention Discuss Semi-Centennial—Impressed With St. John and Sees in Maritime Provinces Great Summer Country

Charles R. McCullough, of Hamilton, widely known as the father of the Canadian Club movement, and president of the Federation of Canadian Clubs, is in the city on his way to Fredericton to attend the annual convention of the clubs, which will attract delegates from all over the country. It is Mr. McCullough who has proposed for discussion at Fredericton the celebration of the semi-centennial of Confederation and the fostering of Canadian ideas and sentiment.

Twenty years ago Mr. McCullough called together half a dozen friends in his office in Hamilton, and as a result of their informal discussion the Canadian club idea was born.

Mr. McCullough and his wife and children have been in the maritime provinces for five weeks, spending most of that time in Prince Edward Island and one week in Halifax. He has devoted much attention to tracing the itinerary of the confederation conferences, and has been most successful in doing so. In St. John today he is securing some facts concerning the movement for the erection, in Ottawa, of the semi-centennial year—five years hence—of a national memorial perpetuating the memory and crowning achievement of the fathers of confederation, and Mr. McCullough has done much to promote this plan.

Mr. McCullough, who has seen something of St. John, expresses himself as most favorably impressed by the appearance and energy of the spirit displayed here and the prospects for extensive development. He is delighted with the maritime provinces as a summer country and believes that many thousands of upper province people would come here to spend their winters if they really knew more about our attractions.

AUTOMOBILE BURNED

Mr. Dunfield's Runabout Destroyed Near Model Farm

A runabout motor car, belonging to Bliss H. Dunfield of this city, was destroyed by fire near Model Farm last night. The car had been out driving in the car, and when near Model Farm something went wrong and the car stalled. Mr. Dunfield telephoned in to the city and had another car go out to tow him in. While being towed to the city the runabout broke away from the other car and went down over a hill and through a fence. It caught on fire, and before any assistance could be rendered was enveloped in flames. It was a total loss.

Mr. Dunfield has had the car only a short time, having purchased it from a man in Nova Scotia. The car was partly insured, but the insurance was not nearly enough to cover the damage.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at 8:45 o'clock this morning when Miss Annie Ellen Doyle, daughter of Mrs. Bridget Doyle, was united in marriage to William Howard, son of the late James Howard of Sussex. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Meahan, who celebrated nuptial mass. The bride was daintily dressed in cream marquisette over cream pique silk dress, trimmed with duchesse lace, and a cream plush hat trimmed with willow leaves. She carried a bouquet of roses.

Miss Mary Doyle, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and was gowned in a whipcord melon shade dress and an English feather handkerchief. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was supported by his brother James Howard. The bridesmaids were James Daley, Vincent Murphy and Frank McCann.

After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's mother, 116 Brussels street, where luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Howard left on the 11:20 o'clock express this morning for a honeymoon trip to Charlottetown and other parts of Prince Edward Island. On their return they will reside at 29 Carlton street. The bride's going away dress was of navy blue with hat to match.

Both the bride and groom received many handsome presents. The groom's present to the bride was a gold bracelet with emerald settings, and to the bridesmaid a pearl ring. To the groomsmen and ushers he gave gold scarf pins. Among out of town guests here for the wedding were Miss Annie Campbell, of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. P. Howes of Sussex and Mr. and Mrs. M. McElrath of Bridgewater, Mass.

Turner-Perry. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Akerley in Adelaide street at nine o'clock this morning, Rev. B. E. Nobles of Victoria street Baptist church united in marriage Frederick Freeman Turner of Amherst and Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Perry of this city, sister of Mrs. Akerley. There were no attendants. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Turner left on the steamer D. J. Furdy for a trip up the St. John river. On their return they will go to Amherst where they will reside. The groom is the owner of a large farm outside of Amherst.

TO INSTAL PUMP. A special meeting of the board of health was held at noon today, when the matter of drainage in connection with the New Systems laundry was dealt with. Mr. Gale, manager of the laundry, promised to comply with the wishes of the board in regard to making an improvement on the present system, which is drainage by pipes into Newman Brook.

TO RESUME. The inquiry into the death of John Gould will be resumed on Thursday evening at seven o'clock in the court house.

Text: 'IF THE CLOTHING YOU BUY THIS FALL BEARS THE OAK HALL LABEL you'll have every reason to be satisfied with your purchase and you'll save money. An Oak Hall label on a suit or overcoat stands for the utmost in looks, in wear and in value that it is possible to give. Ever since we started in business we've lived up to the principle of never putting our name on any garment we couldn't conscientiously guarantee for satisfactory wear. As a result of our adherence to this principle, our business has developed from a very small beginning in 1889 into the greatest retail clothing concern in Eastern Canada. Of course, other things besides our square dealing policy have been instrumental in bringing about our extraordinary success. Progressive methods have also been a factor. But our ability to undersell other stores (an established and unquestioned fact) has been the chief reason for our unrivalled and constantly growing following. And each season finds us better prepared to provide for the wants of our ever-widening circle of patrons. This fall finds us with larger stocks and greater varieties than ever—all ready for you to see and choose from. It will be well worth your while to see what you can get here, and we'll be glad to welcome you and show you what we have, whether you buy or not. So come! MEN'S SUITS, $6.00 to $30.00.
