

20. Pupils are required to be respectful and obedient to their teachers, and kind and obliging to each other. All games likely to excite ill-feeling are strictly prohibited.

21. Pupils habitually inattentive, disrespectful, or disobedient to their teachers, will be suspended from the schools, and if they persevere in such misconduct, ultimately expelled.

22. Pupils are required to speak the truth on all occasions ; to refrain from indelicate or profane language, and from mocking or nick-naming their school-fellows or others ; to be obedient to parents and guardians, and respectful to all persons in authority ; to be attentive, quiet, and orderly in the school ; to promote, as far as possible, the comfort and improvement of others ; and, in fine, to do unto others whatever they would that others should do unto them.

23. Certificates of Honour shall be awarded at each half-yearly examination to such pupils as have not been once absent or late, and whose conduct has been uniformly good, during the session then closing ; unless their absence or lateness shall have been occasioned by sickness of not more than five weeks continuance, to be certified in writing by the pupil's parents or guardians, which certificates shall be endorsed by the principal teacher and be subject to the approval of the Local Superintendent ; provided that particular cases shall receive special consideration, on the report of the Local Superintendent. Any pupil will be allowed to attend one pic-nic of the Sunday School to which such pupil belongs, without, on that account, losing his or her claim to a semi-annual certificate.
