NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 13.—The American says: Cleveland's courage and candor may prove him to be as unluckily honest now as in 1888. His nomination will handicap the Democratic party in so far as it hopes to draw a new element of strength by reason of its unity of sentiment with the Western Republicans on the silver question.

Abnual Meeting of the Church of England Institute.

The Church of England Institute held its annual meeting last night. Rev. Dr. Brigstocke presided. Mr. Geo. E. Fair weather, treasurer, handed in a report showing the year's receipts to have been $861.90, and the expenditure, $$46.12. A vote of thanks to the treasurer was passed.

An exhaustive report from the council was read. It showed the different departments of the Institute to be in a highly efficient condition. A reading room, containing all the standard periodicals and papers, and a well stocked library are conducted in connexion with the institute, and are both extensively used. During the year 19 ordinary and $7 associate members were added to the list. The membership now consists of nine ex-officers, two honorary. 99 ordinary and 290 associate members, a total of $70. The Institute is now in its 16th year and is in a very prosperous condition. Associated with it are the Ladies Auxiliary and the Juliet Kerr branch of the Zenana mission, both of which have been doing much good work in a quiet manner.

The following officers were elected by the institute for the ensuing year: Pressure of the provided this morning.
