Mr. Lininger then went before Judge Williams and asked that the woman committed for contempt. Judge Williams ruled that neither Boyle nor his wife could be compelled to testify until he decided the question.

The first question asked Mrs. Boyle was: "Are you married to James H. Boyle?" The state will try to prove that she is not married to Boyle, so that she can be held as a witness against him.

The grand jury last night returned one indictment each against James Edwin Bell, his only son, were the Boyle and his wife, charging kidnapterest shown by the little ones, one must conclude that the interest ex
