

FOR ARBITRATION.

Correspondence Between Great Britain and United States.

The Letters Exchanged Between English and American Officials.

The Draft Treaty Provides for Two Arbitrators, One to be Appointed by Each Nation.

Washington, July 17.—The correspondence which has passed between the governments of the United States and Great Britain respecting the establishment of a general system of arbitration...

under which it should be adopted are not likely to be ascertained antecedently. In the interests of the idea and...

The draft treaty is composed of six articles. The first provides for the appointment by the United States and Great Britain of two more permanent judicial officers...

MAYES OUT OF IT.

The City Will Make the Harbor Improvements Itself.

Wharf to be Built According to Plans of the C. P. R. Engineer.

Proposal to Get an American Dredge—A Lengthy Discussion on the Work.

The joint committee of the Board of Works and the Winter Port committee of the Common Council were in session for over two hours Friday afternoon...

In reply to the mayor the city engineer reported relative to his visit to Eastport and Lubec. He saw the dredge Freeprest working at the latter place...

The mayor called upon Capt. Dickenson for any information he might have to impart. That gentleman described the dredge Freeprest, saying that it happened as it was at Lubec...

Capt. Dickenson said the report was operated day and night if necessary. The mayor said he had communicated with the dominion government as to getting the government dredges and getting an American dredge in here...

London, July 20.—The Daily News (liberal) has an editorial discussing the correspondence between the United States and the British governments on the subject of an arbitration treaty...

Shah Mozaffer ed Din has proclaimed his eldest son, Mir Muhammad Ali Mirza, his validar or heir apparent. The prince is 24 years of age and is governor of the province of Azerbaijan.

HARMONY HALL.

Fellow Andrew G.'s Wounds and That Soothing Plaster.

Fellow Loran of Fredericton Talks—The Era of Commissions.

Fellow A. T. Receives Hearty Congratulations and Makes a Declaration.

"I observe," said the President last evening, "that Fellow Andrew G. bears many evidences of conflict. He appears to have been grossly assaulted by somebody."

"Ah," said Fellow Andrew G. "This brother," indicating a large comestion, "is where the Globe hit me. This one," indicating another, "is where the Transcript got in a right hander."

"That it should wait for me which I should rather recommend it to the new minister," ironically observed Fellow Richard.

"The Thunder of applause that greeted the remark was conclusive. 'It is possible, of course, to cherish both the historical and philosophical,' observed the Historian."

"By the way," queried the Fellow who had asked the same question on several occasions before, "has Fellow Andrew G. got a constituency?"

"The sun," said the President, "is against me, but it is always against my bacon. We hate Protection, therefore we will oppose free trade in pork."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

events transpiring around us. The ancient colony of Newfoundland has just furnished an instance that must be a source of deep satisfaction...

"Whereas, the premier of Newfoundland has lately betrayed some pronounced Tory proclivities, and appears to have developed an unwarrantable aversion to Pickin's; and whereas, life without Pickin's would be an unbearable infliction; and whereas, Whiteaway has treated human beings as if they were gudgeons; therefore resolved, that he should be saluted down and his carriage used for codfish bait; and further resolved that we express our unbounded pleasure that our brethren in Newfoundland are sound on Boodie, which is the essence of patriotism and the emblem of our Noble Order."

"The Sun," observed the Historian, "got $140,000 a year for railway printing."

"Ah," said Fellow Andrew G. "This brother," indicating a large comestion, "is where the Globe hit me. This one," indicating another, "is where the Transcript got in a right hander."

"The Thunder of applause that greeted the remark was conclusive. 'It is possible, of course, to cherish both the historical and philosophical,' observed the Historian."

"By the way," queried the Fellow who had asked the same question on several occasions before, "has Fellow Andrew G. got a constituency?"

"The sun," said the President, "is against me, but it is always against my bacon. We hate Protection, therefore we will oppose free trade in pork."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

"The Recorder," said the President, "recognizes the merits of a just and fair report."

Directors of the Province:

Black Dress Suits and hand. You can see them at the De-Sorent, 48 Mill Street.

W. J. YOUNGCLAUS.

Charles Parker, C. S. E. Smith, E. R. Taylor, J. B. M. Baxter, S. L. Carleton, C. H. Ferry, 50 cents each.

the Toronto Crew. 19.—Gaudaur, Hackett arrived today. With Robert here some days.

Canadian professional to race for the $1,000 cent on the harbor for the Club Regatta.

YACHTING.

19.—At the annual regatta Britannia club defeated them on the 100-yards swimming W. T. Lawless, amateur Canada and B. Sayre, plon of Australia. Lawry, Sayre quitting after fifty-five yards.

THE RING.

Night's Exhibition. July 19.—J. H. Hildebrand's sporting man, spread of diamonds, came to the Press office to deliver Ed. Smith under his...

Ed. smilingly "and I've got a constitution of my own, and when I fight I fight for my own sake."

Ed. smilingly "and I've got a constitution of my own, and when I fight I fight for my own sake."

Ed. smilingly "and I've got a constitution of my own, and when I fight I fight for my own sake."

WILLIN THE DOCTOR K.D.C. IT WILL LIVE OUT ALL FORMS OF INDIGESTION DYSPEPSIA BEST ENDORSEMENTS.

A WOMAN'S MESSAGE.

CONVEYING WORDS OF HOPE TO THE AFFLICTED.

Had Suffered From Heart Trouble and Liver Complaint, Which Wreaked Her Nervous System—s now as Well as Ever.

(From the Carleton Place Herald.) Truth, it is said, is sometimes stranger than fiction, and in no way has this phrase been better exemplified than in the plain, unvarnished statement of Mrs. W. H. Edwards of Carleton Place...

To Aid, Wilson Capt. Dickenson said he had no reason to believe Col. Moore would not let Mr. Mayes have one of his dredges.

The city engineer thought the Freeprest could excavate 1,200 yards a day here.

Herr August Pungert, a German composer, is writing a musical tetralogy on Odysseus, the first part of which, Penelope, will be performed this fall at the Dresden Opera house.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castor.

GOLDBERG ON TOP.

The Decision Against the Montreal Creditor.

Halifax, July 17.—For five days Chief Justice McDonald and a special jury have been trying the case of Jacob M. Goldberg, and this afternoon the jury returned a verdict in favor of Goldberg. Jacobs, who represented the Montreal creditors, sought to set aside the assignment. In addition to those proceedings the Montreal creditors had Goldberg arrested and taken to Montreal on a charge of fraud. He now finds himself on top.

COAL AT PORTAUPIQUE.

There is considerable excitement at Bass River and Portaupique over the discovery of coal lately on the Port-au-Piquet Mountain by Messrs. Robt. and Alexander McNeil. These men some time ago took a mining lease, and have since, with the assistance of an expert, done considerable prospecting. It is reported that a 12 foot seam of coal has been discovered. The fortunate owners are now sinking a shaft, and prospects are excellent for their future success.

OUR EXPORT EGG TRADE.

(Montreal Trade Bulletin.) Canada exports the bay window, an English market. The principal demand is for our fresh and packed eggs, and the market is not being wanted at all on the other side. The exports of fresh eggs from Canada for the first three months of this year, as compared with the corresponding period last year, Liverpool, the chief market for Canadian eggs; for of the above shipment 1,322 cases went to that port, 455 cases to Glasgow, 10 cases to Bristol. A small lot of 10 cases went to Antwerp. As stated by us last week, some heavy contracts have been made with English firms for November-December delivery of packed eggs, at prices ranging from 6s. 3d. to 6s. 10 per hundred a dozen.

STURGEON GRAPS INTO A BOAT.

"As pilot boat James Gordon Bennett, No. 6, was coming up the bay yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, says the N. Y. Times of Monday, a visitor leaped aboard. The boat had been cruising outside of Sandy Hook, and was on her return trip. Boarder William Bow was in charge of the boat, and the pilot had been ordered to ward her anchor rapidly. The look-out of the water on the lee side and landed on the deck. The bow shook the boat and nearly sent her to the bottom. The visitor was very much alive, and soon made this fact known by lively blows on the look-out's head, which knocked him down. The crew rushed on deck to see what the trouble was. They found an angry man, who was the cause of the commotion, and with hostilities and oars they set about hitting the fish. They proceeded to land the visitor. The sturgeon measured fifteen feet from his head to his tail, according to the report. He was killed on the Starboard deck and cut up.

Last Thursday about eight o'clock Samuel Lyons of Westfield was somebody who was injured about the head and body by being thrown from a sulky at Westfield, due to a collision with a carriage.