fellows' Hall, Union street, this evening, to begin drill for the season.

breezy day, so many open spaces give the boys a chance to raise them.

Thorne's ping-pong tournament Sat-

The residents of the "Old Fort" Carleton, are much amused to hear that it is to be turned into a park to commemorate Fort La Tour. They wonder where the park will be put—the place is pretty well occupied just at present by dwelling houses.

Four street car loads of people from the east end had to wait till they were pretty tired after the close of the concert in the Main street Baptist church last evening. The company might easily have had cars ready for a prompt service.

ON THE RIVER.

The Ice Still Holds—Rushing Work on the Steamers.

Work on the river steamers is being rapidly pushed to completion, and several of the boats will shortly be ready to go on their respective routes. None of the steamers, with the exception of the Springfield, which is now running, have as yet undergone their annual inspection. All are ready by day 14, but Mr. Waring is on Prince Edward Island attending to several boats over there, and nothing can be done until he returns.

The Crystal Stream is giving work to quite a large number of men, and it is expected that the improvements on her will be completed by the end of next week. The other boats have not so much to be done on them, the work being chiefly the spring cleaning.

This summer will see more boats than ever before running on the river, and competition will naturally be keen. The Victoria and David Wilson of the Star line will remain on their old run from St. John to Fredericton, the May Queen to Salmon river, the Hampstead to Wickham, the Clifton to Hampstead, the Majestic to Gagetown, and the Aberdeen from Fredericton to Woodstock during the earlier part of the season.

Besides these steamers the Springfield will for a time remain on her present route to Bellefleur, but from the first of June will go from Gagetown to Fredericton. Her place on the St.
John-Bellefleur run will be taken by the new boat, the Beatrice E. Waring, now in course of construction.

The new boat purchased by the Princesco Co. will, it is believed, be put on the St. John-Coles Island route, although some believe she will compete with the May Queen to Salmon River.

The Crystal stream will replace the burned Star to Coles Island. This will make no less than eleven steamers leaving or arriving at Indiantown almost daily.

RECEPTION FOR SIR A. C. MCKENZIE.

Sir A. C. McKenzie, who is on his way out from England now, is expected to arrive in Halifax today. On Monday afternoon a reception will be tendered him at the residence of Mayor White that local music lovers may have an opportunity of meeting one of England's most famous musicians and composers. It had originally been the intention of the Oratorio Society to formally receive him at the Royal Hotel.

THE ORGAN AT FAULT.

During the concert in Main street Baptist church last evening the bellows of the organ gave out and caused considerable inconvenience. De Witt Cairns was to have given a solo which called for a heavy accompaniment, but on account of the accident was compelled to change his selection. In the other accompaniments some difficulty was met with in keeping enough wind in the bellows.

MONTREAL, March 26.—Judge Curran this morning opened an inquiry into the charges made against the police force. The officers accused filed pleas. Chief Legault's plea advanced various reasons why some saloons were allowed to remain open after hours. In the case of one place it was that returns were being received from a prize fight.

S. S. CENSUS.

Religious Enumeration of the City Begins To-morrow.

Four Hundred Canvassers Start Tomorrow Afternoon—The Purpose of the Census

The religious census of the city taken under the auspices of the St. John City Sunday School Association will begin at one o'clock tomorrow. About four hundred canvassers will make a house to house visitation of the whole city with endeavor to obtain figures telling the number of persons in each house; the number attending church at least once a month; the number attending Sunday school; the denomination and church attended or preferred by each member.

For convenience the city has been divided into three districts, under a chairman, E. M. Sippell has charge of the work in the main city, Rev. J.
C. B. Appel in the North End and John McKinnon in the West End. Under these are chairmen for each ward, who have direct control of the canvassers. The large volunteer force it is expected that the whole work will be finished in the one afternoon. A secretary will be employed to tabulate the results. This work, it is expected, will be completed in about three weeks.

The aim of the census is to put in the hands of every pastor a list of those who by their own preference fall under his care, and also to put into hands of all Christian workers in the city information that will enable them to prosecute their work more efficiently than before. In view of the praise-worthiness of the purpose it is to be hoped that the canvassers will everywhere be courteously received and assisted in their work as much as possible.

POLICE COURT.

Charged With Theft—Laura Gets Sixty-Ned York Once More.

Two young men named George Brown and Charles McKinnon were arrested last night on suspicion of stealing three coils of rope from the tug Lily Glasier, lying at Indiantown.
The rope was stolen on Wednesday night. This morning the charge was read to the prisoners and they were remanded.

Laura Byron tanked up on Fort Howe yesterday and used some impositude. Her overworked vocabulary was given a rest in a north end cell, and excepting for a headache Laura felt all right this morning. She was given thirty days and seemed satisfied that this was enough. But there was another little matter which Laura had neglected to settle, and which was remembered in court. Some months ago she had used bad words to a Mrs.
Forden, and a warrant had been issued.
On this charge Laura got another thirty days and was more than satisfied.

Ned York, whose death was reported some months ago, but who has evidently fooled the undertakers, was found lying on Water street about nine o'clock last evening. Thirty days—and a bath.

A WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Huggard of 165 Main street were very pleasantly surprised last night, when about three-score of their friends visited them to remind them that they had enjoyed a score of years of married life. The evening's entertainment consisted of parlor amusements, readings by Alex.
Baird, gramophone selections by James Gorby; piano and violin selections, by Mr. and Mrs. Pederson; organ and piano solos by Misses Cromwell, Garland and Huggard.

Before the evening was spent, Geo.
Chamberlain, in behalf of the assembled friends, presented Mr. and Mrs.
Huggard with a handsome sideboard.
Refreshments were then served by the ladies, after which the company dispersed, having enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

"That is the best Silver Polish made," said a young man from the foot of Garden street for a bottle of SHORT'S LIQUID SILVER holm and nephew of the late Mrs. C. E.

Knapp, of Dorchester. He started in the railway was building. After the I. C. R. was built he received a position in the audit office at Moncton. When pay day came he wanted his pay increased. His request meeting with a refusal, he left the service and went to

THE JUBILEE SINGERS.

Every seat and extra chairs were filled and standing room was at a premium when Mr. Coffin's St. John Jubilee Singers sang the opening selection last evening at the Tabernacle Y.
M. C. A. hall. When the last piece was sung the singers sat down to a well prepared spread served by the ladies. The Jubilee Singers will sing this evening at the Methodist church in Fairville when Toney Lane will play the banjo and harmonica at one time.
