CURLERS' PLANS.

A special meeting of the Thistle Curling Club will be held this evening at the rink when skips will be elected for several annual matches. On Saturday, 21st inst., four rinks will leave here for Halifax where they will play on the following Monday. Games will also be played with Truro and Amherst.

MARKET IS SHAKY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Wall street prices in the stock market were rally within 1-4 of yesterday's close and were both up and down. In case of Colo. Fuel, Consolidated and U. P. the variations were slight, the last named losing 3-4. Erie was bought heavily at a gain of 3-8, but the increase for Amalgamated Copper was slight and after opening a shade higher at 74 1/4, re-acted a point.

GREAT STRIKE THREATENED.

BERLIN, Jan. 4.—The discontent in the Westphalian coal fields has reached an acute stage and a general strike affecting 250,000 miners is impending.

JAPS TOOK CHARGE AT NOON TODAY.

Russian Prisoners Will March Out Tomorrow.

They Number 25,000--20,000 Are Sick --Russians are Not Discouraged by Port Arthur's Fall.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE THIRD JAPANESE ARMY, Jan. 3, via Fusan, Jan. 4.—The request of the Russians for food, medicine and physicians for their sick and wounded has been granted. Itse, Santse and Tayaungko Ports were taken over by the Japanese at noon today. The date on which the Russian prisoners of war will be marched out has been delayed until Jan. 5.

TOKIO, Jan. 4.—The Japanese captured five thousand prisoners at Port Arthur. The total number of the inhabitants is 35,000 thousand, of whom 20,000 are sick.

JAPS TAKING CHARGE. TOKIO, Jan. 4.—(Noon.)—Gen. Nogel reports to the army department that on Jan. 3 the command of both the Japanese and Russian armies concluded their conference, and this morning the actual transfer of articles at Port Arthur as property of the Japanese government commenced.

HOW RUSSIA FEELS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 4.—The press here contains absolutely no additional news of the war, but the papers with one accord, praise the heroic work of the Port Arthur garrison and say its record furnishes an object lesson to both Russia and Japan. After bestowing a tribute on the defenders of Novoe Vremya says: "The unpreparedness of the fortress, which now stands deserted of hand, reads as a lesson on what Russia must do, and how she must change her methods to achieve victory. It also shows Japan what she undertakes, when such enormous losses are entailed in capturing even a small, empty-handed garrison, driven to the last ditch. Russia has had eleven months of hard and valuable experience in the art of war under the new conditions imposed by modern technical requirements. It has been costly training, but will be valuable."

In an even more strongly worded article, the Russ says: "Had the Japanese been able to cut off the last train which reached Port Arthur, the blockade would have found the fortress even worse prepared. Well may those few remaining heroes say: 'We have done our duty, but the rest of the world, the time has now come for everyone to put a shoulder to the wheel and redeem our prestige in the Far East.'"

THE KEY TO PEACE.

TOKIO, Jan. 4.—The Jiji, discussing the surrender of Port Arthur, reviews the price paid in lives and says: "We ought to keep Port Arthur in our mind as long as our empire exists. Port Arthur is the key to peace in the Far East and it is our duty to keep the key in our hands."

BALTIIC FLEET'S RENDEZVOUS.

TAMADAVE, Island of Madagascar, Jan. 3.—The division of the Russian second Pacific squadron, commanded by Rear-Admiral Vostokovskiy, which, after passing through the Suez Canal, sailed for Jibuti, French Somaliland, Dec. 10 for the Island of Madagascar, anchored today in Tamadave Bay, in the northwestern part of the island. The squadron commanded by Admiral Rojestvensky is at Antongil Bay, on the east coast. It is believed that the whole squadron will rendezvous at Diego, Suarez Bay, on the northeast coast of the island.

ATTACK ON KUROKI CEASED.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD, Jan. 3, via Fusan.—The Russian fire against the Japanese trenches has almost ceased during the past two days. Whether this is due to the news from Port Arthur or not is unknown.

FUNERALS TODAY.

The funeral of Peter L. Mourier was held this morning at 8:30 o'clock from his late residence, No. 71 Brittain street. The remains were taken to the church of St. John the Baptist, where Rev. W. F. Chapman celebrated requiem mass. Interment was made in the Old Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were: Captain James S. Horsley, Captain P. Cassley, William Kirk, John Allen, H. C. Dalton and Francis Marsaire. The late Mrs. John Carrall was buried this afternoon from No. 105 Erin street. The funeral service at the Cathedral was read by Rev. Father Holland. Burial took place in the old Catholic cemetery. The funeral of Mrs. James Burke, who died at the hospital, was held this afternoon.

REV. MR. HUTCHINSON CONSIDERS.

(Special to the Star.) MONCTON, N. B., Jan. 4.—Rev. Mr. Hutchinson did not receive until this morning the telegram calling him to Main Street Baptist church, St. John. He says it was a complete surprise to him, and he could only say he would consider the matter. (See also page 5.) E. L. Jarvis and wife returned to Halifax at noon today.

TUG BOAT RACE ENDS IN EXPLOSION AND DEATH.

Of Crew of 38 Men Only 9 Escaped Serious Injury--Some Blown to Pieces and Some Drowned--Five are Dying.

HUNTINGTON, Va., Jan. 4.—By the explosion of the boilers on the tug boat Defender, in the Ohio river, near here, number of lives have been lost.

The crew of 38 men, only nine escaped serious injury. Several dead bodies have been recovered. Five others are so badly burned or scalded that they will die. Six more of the crew cannot be accounted for and it is believed that their lifeless bodies now lie at the bottom of the river. A partial list of the dead and missing: Percy Spencer, mate, Point Pleasant, W. Va.; Horace Ketzal, Pittsburg; Jas. Cease, lamp trimmer, Pittsburg; Thomas Duffy, Scott Hamilton, James Jones, Pittsburg, supposed to have been burned to death; William Wetzel, George Kidd, David Adkins, deck hands, Pittsburg.

The tug was owned by the Pittsburg Tugboat Company and was one of the biggest tug boats on the river. She had been one of the first boats out of Pittsburg on the river, and loved a heavy line of coal barges to the Cincinnati market. She was returning to Pittsburg in company with the tug boat Victor just this morning about eight miles from here when the two big steamers were racing at the time the explosion occurred.

BLIZZARD OF SNOW AND SLEET SWEEPS THE COAST.

I. C. R. BADLY AFFECTED.

(Special to the Star.) MONCTON, N. B., Jan. 4.—The heavy storm which set in last night was severely felt along the I. C. R. and great difficulty is being experienced in moving trains. Up to eight o'clock this morning about eight inches of snow had fallen. The high wind which prevails is whirling the snow in all directions and piling up drifts.

IN EUROPE TOO.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A Paris despatch which says: "With the temperature falling slowly, skating was general in the suburbs. Yesterday's frost was the severest for many years. The streets which were with ice and the cab service in a great measure was suspended. The air was filled with sleet and the fountains were frozen. A heavy snow fall is threatened and there is no immediate prospect of milder weather. Wintry conditions in middle and western Europe are extraordinary. The blizzard in Switzerland was the fiercest since 1875. Sunday and Monday were the coldest days with one exception for forty years. Naples is covered with snow and all passengers on the Louisa-Paris express, after a night spent in a snow drift, were obliged to return to Lausanne. Naples is covered with snow and at San Remo at noon the temperature was only 41 degrees Fahrenheit. The Swiss lowest point was 8 centigrade. Trains is covered with snow for the first time in thirty years."

NEW YORK SUFFERS SEVERELY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—New York City and all the surrounding country today was in the grasp of the most severe storm of the winter. Traffic of all kinds was hampered, trolley lines were tied up and the street swept by a gale driving before it fine snow that cut like sand and piled in great drifts which were practically impassable. Railroad trains from all points were delayed from a few minutes to three hours and elevated lines were operated with the greatest difficulty without regard to schedule.

At sea the conditions must have been beyond description, but up to an early hour today no disaster had been reported. Four serious fires during the storm worked a hardship on the firemen and their horses. In one of these, just before daylight, on the upper East Side, the tenants were forced to go into the streets clad in night garments. Fifty-four horses were burned to death in this fire. The financial loss was not heavy in any of them.

WORSE IN HALIFAX THAN HERE.

(Special to the Star.) HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 4.—Last night saw the greatest sleet storm of years in this city. An immense amount of damage has been done to trees and wires, six hundred telephones at least having been thrown out of business. Shade and ornamental trees are in many places completely ruined. The street railway and electric lighting systems are tied up, several of the street cars being stalled in the suburbs overnight. The sleet storm was so far as known of a local character, snow falling to a considerable depth in the other sections of the province.

(Special to the Star.)

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 4.—By far the most severe storm of the season set in here at an early hour last evening and has continued with unabated fury ever since. This morning the streets are deserted, it being almost impossible for pedestrians to get along. The train from St. John did not arrive here until nearly 12 o'clock. But for the delay in trains no inconvenience has yet been felt. The temperature for the last 24 hours has averaged 10 above.

BRAVE GIRL FOILS BRUTAL ASSAULT.

Ten Year Old Child Attacked On Exmouth St.

Little Sadie Cunningham Saved Herself From Dastardly Assault Who Unfortunately Escaped.

Some brute, dressed as a man, attempted last night at an early hour to commit a criminal assault on a little girl, but fortunately the child's screams brought assistance and the creature in man's guise fled and unfortunately made his escape.

The little girl assaulted was Sadie Cunningham, daughter of W. J. Cunningham, of 51 Exmouth street. She had gone to Brussels street on an errand and was returning at about 8:30 o'clock when a man ran from an alley on the opposite side of the street and came directly toward her. She was then almost at her own door and ran down the alley toward the rear of her home.

Before she reached it, however, the man overtook her. He caught her in his arms and placed one hand enclosed in a heavy wollen mitten over her mouth and attempted to throw her down. The little girl struggled bravely and got the mitt away from her mouth and called for help.

Her scream was heard by her brother, a young man of about twenty-one years, who ran out and found his little sister almost fainting in the snow. He tenderly carried her indoors and when she had sufficiently recovered to tell him what occurred he started out to look for her assailant but could not get any trace of him.

The child says the man wore a long coat with a cape, that is all she is able to tell. Several people who were coming from Exmouth street church saw the man running away.

CARLETON CO. DELEGATION URGES JONES' CLAIMS ON GOVERNMENT

(Special to the Star.) FREDERICTON, Jan. 4.—Owing to the late arrival of the premier, the government did not meet until twelve o'clock and held a short session. Nothing but routine business was transacted this morning and in an interview with a member of the executive, your correspondent was informed that it was not expected that any business of importance would be transacted at this session, though he added: "You can never tell what might turn up."

A delegation from Carleton county is in the city and will probably be heard this afternoon. It is presumed that they are here to urge the claims of Mr. Jones to the surveyor generalship. The government expect to get through their business here today.

Letters of administration were granted this morning in the estate of the late Edward J. Walsh by his widow, Augusta Walsh. The estate is valued at $1,000. Hanington, Reed & Hanington, proctors.

The ladies' committee of the P. O. asylum will meet tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock.

number of entrances a wholesaler may have and the law provides that if a man or a firm hold a retail and wholesale license they may have communication between the two premises.

The matter caused considerable talk about town today, the general opinion being that the inspector's action was the result of the crusade carried on by John Rhea.

Enforcing Liquor Law.

Licence Inspector Jones Notifies All Saloon Keepers to Close Their Extra Doors at Once.

"All second entrances to licensed premises must be closed, as sub-section 3 of section 24 of the Liquor License act of 1896 calls for and I intend to see that the law is observed."

So spoke Liquor Licence Inspector John B. Jones to the Star this morning. He also added that he had already notified some of the dealers and would call on the others at once. It was not his intention to report a man before he told him to close all but one door, but after being notified he would expect them to obey his instructions. After one notification he would not accept any excuses, but would proceed at once against any who disregard his orders.

Sub-section 3 of section 24 reads: "No bar room in which liquors are sold, except in the case of clubs and hotels, shall have more than one entrance; provided that nothing in this act contained shall prevent a door of communication being maintained between such bar and premises where liquor is sold by wholesale in cases where the same person holds a retail licence for such bar and also a wholesale licence for such other premises."

This section, says Mr. Jones, makes it clear that but one entrance is allowed with the exception of hotels and clubs. The inspector said that his attention has been drawn to this section of the act and also to the fact that some places were making use of the second entrance for illegal purposes, consequently he had nothing else to do but to notify all to close up the extra doors.

Mr. Jones, in answer to a question, said there was little violation of the law by reason of the second entrance, the taverns generally closed sharply on time. There are no limitations as to the
