CHATHAM, Oct. 7 .- This is the sevnty-ninth anniversary of the great Mriamich fire. The marriage of P. J. King to Miss Susan Nicol took place on Tuesday last in St. Luke's church. The edifice was crowded with a large gathering, chiefly of ladies. Mr. and Mrs. King left by the ocean limited for Winnipeg, intending to make visits at Montreal and Toronto en route. Diphtheria has made its appearance in several near-by localities as well as in town. Geo. Dickson of Napan had one or two cases in his house, which was guarantined.

Several cases of sneak thieving have been discovered lately in town, E. A. Stephen liberal convention. Strang's store having been entered by a young Mayo, who took about $40. Most of the money was recovered, and the boy, who is an incorrigible young scamp, was committed for trial.

Mrs. Stewart, mother of Editor Stewart of the World, is in very poor health, her life heing desnaired of a few days ago. Mr. Stewart is away from home, being a delegate to the I. O. O. F. convention.

It is understood that the long idle pulp mill will be operated by the bank, and it is hoped that this may be the means of inducing prospective purchasers to secure the property.

A. & R. Loggie are considering the proposition of purchasing the Bentley mill at Loggieville, and it is rumored that Richard O'Leary has his eye on the same property. Mr. O'Leary intends establishing a branch of his extensive fish business at Loggieville.
