INDIGESTION CONQUERED BY K.D.C.

IT RESTORES THE STOMACH TO HEALTHY ACTION AND TONES WHOLE SYSTEM

News Summary

Prof Tizzoni, of the Bologna University, Rome, has announced to the Royal Academy of Sciences the discovery of a serum to combat pneumonia.

After a brief spell of inactivity, the volcano Stromboli, in Rome, is again in eruption. Great quantities of lava and stones are being thrown up and to an immense distance from the crater.

Professor Prince will leave for Halifax in the morning and will hold a conference at Halifax in connection with more protection for salmon and trout and also to consider the question of close season.

President Roosevelt, New York, has contributed $100 to the Christian Herald's famine fund for the relief of the suffering peasantry of Finland, 400,000 of whom are reported to be on the verge of starvation. The fund now exceeds $20,000.

Eight more cases of smallpox have been reported to the provincial health department, Toronto, one in Deseronto, one at Tankleek Hill, one at Almo, in Rainy River district, two at Pembroke, and three at Brantford.

C. E. Perry, civil engineer, Montreal, has arrived to begin an extensive survey of country north of Winnipeg for 350 miles east and west in connection with trans-continental lines projected by Grand Trunk and Quebec Trans-Canada Railway.

A great fire broke out January 25th in Armagh, Ireland, and spread so rapidly that the local fire brigade was unable to cope with it, and assistance had to be sent for from Belfast, 35 miles distant. Ten of the largest warehouses and shops in the centre of the town were destroyed, the damage being estimated at $300,000. The trade of the town is paralyzed.

News from Fez dated Tangier, Jan. 21 states the pretender, Bahamara, was then advancing at the head of large forces and had arrived 25 miles from Fez. A decisive battle was expected and should the Sultan's main army which is posted on the Sebou river be defeated, it was thought that the city of Fez would inevitably fall into the hands of Bahamara.

The board of health has resolved not to admit into port the Kormos line steamer Hermonthia, San Francisco, Dec. 31, for Hamburg, which has arrived at Guayaquil, Ecuador. The board also asks President Plass to recall the Honduran consul at San Francisco and to request Dr. Felicitimo Lopez, of New York, to go immediately to San Francisco and act as consul until the plague disappears from that city.

The signature of the Anglo-American treaty to settle the Alaskan dispute at Washington Saturday has given great satisfaction to the English press on the ground that it gives at a critical moment in the Venezuelan trouble an undoubted proof of the uninterrupted friendliness existing between Great Britain and the United States. This is the point which is elaborated in all the editorials on the subject almost to the exclusion of discussion of the intrinsic merits of the arrangement concluded.

What may be regarded as the first move to prepare for rivalry of the projected Grand Trunk Pacific has been made by the C. P. R., which has registered plans to build a line from Toronto to Sudbury, a distance of 200 miles. The preparation of the C. P. R. to build this line is to protect itself rather than to obstruct the new trans-continental line. At present the C. P. R. uses the G. T. R. line from Toronto to North Bay, but would be shut out if the G. T. R. extended to the West. The route of the new line will be along the northeastern shore of Georgian Bay.

British emigration returns for the past twelve months indicate increased emigration to Canada of 59 per cent. Emigration to the United States increased .0 per cent, and to South Africa 82 per cent. Emigration to Australia declined 6 per cent. The British board of agriculture is awaiting the issue of the Argentine decree enforcing the new Argentine laws in regard to cattle disease. When the decree was issued the board expected to place Argentine cattle on the same footing with Canadian. There is no sign of the board yielding to the Canadian demands for the free entry of store cattle.

IF YOU HAVE DYSPEPSIA

Dr. Sproule, B. A.

NOW is the time to cure it. It's a poor thing to have and a good thing to get rid of. Few diseases cause greater trouble—few are regarded as of so little account. You can suffer untold torments with it and your friends say, "Oh, only dyspepsia." Then it takes the life out of you so! It spoils all your good times, it makes the bad ones worse. It troubles you day and night. You get impatient, irritable, anxious, melancholy. Who wouldn't when undergoing torture—and that's just what Dyspepsia is.

WILL HELP YOU FREE

Don't suffer any more! It's absolutely unnecessary. You might just as well be cured and happy, as to worry along with Dyspepsia for your constant companion. Perhaps you've tried to cure it with some of the widely advertised dyspepsia cures of the day. Lots of people do that—and get disappointed. Such things sometimes relieve for a while—but in the end you're worse off than ever. The trouble is this: Dyspepsia affects some people one way, some another. That's why what helps one person will not help the next. It's a disease that demands individual treatment. It can be cured only by one who is familiar with it in every form, who realizes its various causes and effects.

Now I do understand it, because for years I have studied it unceasingly; I can cure it as thousands of patients will testify; and, if you wish it, I will cure you. I will examine your case minutely and give it the exact treatment it needs.

with consultation and advice. Write to me today and receive the benefit of my offer at once. Do not be discouraged. Patient after patient, after having tried everything, suffering from the worst forms of dyspepsia, has come to me and I have restored them to perfect health. Read the convincing letter of Mr. Barney Dolon of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Do you feel weak?
Does your head ache?
Are you constipated?
Do you tire out easily?
Does your stomach swell?
Does your stomach bloat?
Is your sleep disturbed?
Are you tired on rising?
Is your appetite variable?
Does your heart palpitate?
Does your stomach pain you?
Does what you eat nourish you?
Do you have pain under the ribs?
Are you distressed after eating?
Do you crave food that hurts you?
Do you have a "all-gone" feeling?
Does your food sour in your stomach?
Are you unable to eat certain foods?
Do you sometimes have an empty feeling?

Answer the above questions, yes or no, write your name and address plainly on the dotted lines, cut out and send to Dr. Sproule, B. A., English Specialist (Graduate Dublin University, formerly Surgeon British Royal Naval Services) 7 to 11 Beane St. Boston. He will give you valuable medical advice absolutely free of charge.

DEAR DR. SPROULE:—I have just finished that course of medicine which you sent me three weeks ago. Then I was in poor health and today I am a well man. Never have I felt any better during my whole life. I have a good appetite. Not only that but I can relish what I do eat and I feel as though it does me good. No more of that tired feeling when I get up in the morning! No more stomach trouble! No more of those dreadful dull pains in my stomach that I used to have for at least two or three hours at a time! No more pains under the ribs, nor back of the ribs in my right side! In short I am wholly out of that dreadful indigestion. Wishing you many years of prosperity I remain, Your obedient friend,
BARNEY DOLON,
1566 South St., Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

THE MONTREAL WITNESS.

There is no secular paper with which we are acquainted which exhibits a higher ideal in respect to the moral character and influence of the matter which it supplies to its readers than the Montreal Witness. The Witness has long stood for what is purest and most edifying in journalism and has amply deserved the success which it has achieved. While a first class newspaper, the Witness does not consider that anything that has happened and anything that will be eagerly read is fit reading for the home. It recognizes a responsibility in this matter, and persistently declines to print news or other matter of a demoralizing character. Rev. W. D. Reid, a prominent Presbyterian minister of Toronto, says of the Witness: "The Witness makes for righteousness and truth regardless of cost and consequences. It stands four square to every wind that blows. It has principles (which is a somewhat rare thing for a newspaper to have in these days) and by these principles it is prepared to stand or fall. Personally, I value the Witness for many things. I like it because of the reliability of its news. I am also partial to the Witness because of its educative influence. Every subject of interest is there discussed in strong, vigorous, fearless editorials, and better still, all are dealt with from a Christian standpoint. These editorials bear the stamp of a high order of literary merit, and almost a painful conscientiousness. It is indeed a refreshing thing in these days, when men talk of the 'almighty dollar' as if it were Almighty, to find a newspaper whose principles go right down through the pocket, and whose owners are willing to sacrifice for conscience sake. There are papers that publish religious things because these may secure for the paper an entrance into homes from which they would otherwise be excluded. But the religion of the Witness permeates the whole paper. Long may it live abundantly may it prosper and long may it be spared to inform, educate, inspire and uplift humanity."

WORLD WIDE.

A weekly reprint of articles from leading journals and reviews reflecting the current thought of both hemispheres.

World Wide is a marvel of interest and cheapness as a high class eclectic; it will compare favorably with anything at several times its price. For the small sum of one dollar a year it brings every week the best articles that appear during the week in the leading British, American, and Foreign publications. Of course it appeals to the thinking element in each community, those who want to know what the world thinkers are thinking; but these will find it as full of rare entertainment as of wisdom. It is absolutely world-wide in its interests and has no axe to grind.

It will be sent free of charge to any address for a short time. The annual subscription price is $1.00, and the publishers John Dougall & Son, of Montreal.

"MESSENGER" STORIES.

Stories, illustrations and anecdotes are perhaps the main features of attraction in The Northern Messenger. But the stories are so carefully chosen that the exercise is a sweet influence in the lives of old and young. Then there are special departments devoted to Temperance, the Sunday School, the Little People and the Home. The paper is a popular one; a vast number of Sunday Schools in Canada and the United States are using it to great advantage, insuring a more regular attendance, besides extending their influence for good in the homes of their scholars. The Northern Messenger is probably read every week by well on to a quarter of a million people, and for that reason the price is extremely low.
