Homeseekers' Excursion.

The Grand Trunk Railway has issued a circular authorizing all agents in Canada to sell Homeseekers' Excursion tickets to points in Western Canada. This is interesting information for those desiring to take advantage of these excursions on certain dates from April to September, 1911. The Grand Trunk route is the most interesting, taking a passenger through the populated centres of Canada, through Chicago and thence via Duluth, or through Chicago and the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. Ask Grand Trunk Agents for further particulars.

WAR SHIP AND COMMANDER SENT TO PROTECT AMERICANS IN CHINA.

Rear Admiral Murdock, in command of the Asiatic squadron, has reached the vicinity of the trouble zone in Sze-chuen province, China, and is ready to give any needed protection to American life and property. He has transferred his flag from the Saratoga to the New Orleans and is proceeding on board the latter vessel to Hankow, accompanied by the United States gunboat Helena. The Saratoga is proceeding to Woosung.

NICKEL'S BIG NEW BILL.

The Nickel certainly caught the crowd yesterday afternoon and at night. While the programme was most attractive in itself the particular magnet was the reading of election news from the stage hot from a special wire in the building. This proved a great source of satisfaction to those who wanted the news, though there were disappointed ones, as well as glad ones, in the large crowds of listeners. Today the Nickel has a first-class "forget-it" programme for those wearied of politics, particularly for the voters who are a bit dejected over the result. This bill includes a society play by the Lubin Co., entitled "Through Jealous Eyes," with Arthur Johnston and Florence Lawrence in the leading roles. The Edison-Co. will present a very funny story, "His First Step," a tale of a sprouting commercial traveller. In Cambodia is a travel film and An Unexpected Gift a pretty little heart-interest tale. Madame Furlong-Schmidt has a fine ballad, and Mr. Moon a love ditty. Orchestra afternoon and evening and big Indian features for Saturday afternoon.

The grand re-union of the members of St. Peter's Y. M. A. will be held on the 28th inst., in their rooms, Douglas avenue. Elaborate plans are being laid for the season's work.
