Around the City

WANTED
At Once, Four Marine Engineers. Apply, Thos. Nagle, 147 Prince William Street.

Agency for Ford Cars.
 George A. Clark, manager of the Fairville Garage Company, announces that his company has been allotted a direct agency for Ford cars for the city and county of St. John and they are prepared to furnish gasoline, oils and all Ford parts.

The Holiday.
 All the theatres in the city yesterday were crowded with delighted audiences. Special programmes for the holiday was a feature and the thousands who did not hike to the parks or country found rest and pleasure in the different amusement houses.

Runaway on Marsh Road.
 A team of draught horses ran away on the Marsh Road yesterday but were stopped by James Cullinan before any damage was done or any one injured. Cullinan was riding on a car at the time and with presence of mind sprang off and seized the horses, bringing them to a stop.

Increased Production.
 The land prepared by the city for garden purposes on the Manawagonish Road was a busy spot yesterday, about sixty of those who have secured lots there being on hand to take advantage of the fine day and get seed sown. A number of lots are already seeded down and it is expected that the work of this week will see practically all the seeding done.

Will Have to Transfer.
 The men of the water and sewerage department worked all day yesterday and are now ready to lay the pipe in the section of Princess street between Sydney and Carmarthen which will be done today. While they are engaged in the work it will be necessary to lay out the street cars on that particular piece of street as the pipe lays directly under one track. Arrangements have been made whereby the cars will run to the corner of Sydney streets and the passengers will transfer to cars which will run from the other end of the block in which the pipe is being laid. Commissioner Wigmore said last night that the work would be rushed as fast as possible in order that the people may be inconvenienced as little as possible.

DESERTER ARRESTED AT SUSSEX AND BROUGHT TO THE CITY LAST NIGHT

Enlisted in 65th Battery at Woodstock—Away for About Three Months—Tried to Enlist in Forestry Unit.

After enjoying French leave for about three months DeWit was last night taken into custody by military police. DeWit is a native of Maine. He came to New Brunswick and enlisted in the 65th Battery which is stationed at Woodstock. After a short stay in the quarters of the unit, he left without giving any report to the officer. For three months he evaded the military police, and during the most of that time he was in Maine. Thinking that he would be forgotten by the officer commanding the 65th, the young man returned to New Brunswick and made his way to Sussex. At Sussex he applied for enlistment with the Forestry company and no doubt would have been accepted, but the Sergeant-Major of the Forestry company was only recently transferred from the 65th, and he recognized the young man. DeWit was placed under arrest and word was sent to the Siege Battery to send military police to Sussex. Corporal Caldwell and another member of the Siege Battery went to Sussex and returned last night to the city with the prisoner. When arrested he was attired in civilian clothes, even to the boots.

FRANK J. DOWNES HELPS THE KILTIES

Calls on Col. Guthrie in Boston and Donates Fifty Dollars to Recruiting Fund.

Yesterday's Boston Globe publishes excellent pictures of Lieut.-Col. Percy A. Guthrie, Captain T. McNally and Captain J. Douglas Black of the 256th New Brunswick Kilties. These officers were in Boston on a recruiting tour and on Sunday managed to get twenty-one recruits. They have secured headquarters in the United States army recruiting office, and the colonel stated on Thursday the Kilties' bag pipe band would arrive in Boston and, if permitted, would march through the city and every Canadian and British subject in Boston who wishes to enlist will be signed on.
 While at the Parker House Frank J. Downes called on the colonel and asked "Where do you get the funds for this recruiting expedition?"
 "Oh," said Colonel Guthrie jauntily, "some of it we raise by a field day, part of it our friends furnish."
 "I thought so," said Mr. Downes slowly and he gave $50 on the spot.
 On Sunday morning Captain McNally addressed the Bible class in Tremont Temple, while Col. Guthrie went to the Dudley street Baptist church and spoke to the Bible class there. In the afternoon all the officers went to the memorial services in Parker Memorial conducted by the combined Scottish societies of Massachusetts, where Col. Guthrie spoke again, paying tribute to the memory of Sergeant George Chalmers, who was killed in France last September.

KENNETH O. WOODS.

Col. Fowler's unit and at the time of enlisting was only nineteen years old. He was popular with all who knew him, and during the time spent with the battalion made many friends. Besides his father and mother, two younger brothers and a sister survive him.

INSPECTS CADET CORPS AT ROTHESEY COLLEGE AND ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

Capt. R. R. Black Pays Annual Visit—Compliments Boys on Showing Made.

The organizer and inspector of cadets for the Maritime Provinces arrived in Rothesay yesterday afternoon on route from Charlottetown, P. E. I., where he already inspected the two public school cadet corps at Queens Square and West Kent on Saturday last.
 The inspector arrived on the college grounds at Rothesay at 5.15 p. m. and at 6.30 p. m. the boys of the Rothesay Cadet Corps were lined up to receive the inspector, who was accompanied by the principal of the college, Mr. W. Hibbard, Mr. Skelton, governors of the college and many other citizens of the town who by their presence showed their interest and enthusiasm in this particular branch of the school training. There were also present a large number of the parents of the boys to witness the manoeuvres and physical training display which also form a portion of the syllabus.
 Immediately on arrival of the inspector he was received with the splendid salute to which the splendid bugle and cornet band of the corps played and in his saying too much to state that the visitors present were highly impressed with the splendid physical appearance of the boys, and the discipline shown when called to attention by their energetic instructor Color-Sergeant Doe.
 Following this the march past formed a ceremonial feature of the inspection and the boys certainly presented a fine appearance and were much applauded by those present as they steadily passed the saluting base at which the inspector had taken his stand.
 The instructor and each of the company officers then proceeded through their various drill movements consisting of company drill, skirmishing order, rifle exercises, signalling and last but not least a most interesting display in physical training. The number of boys on parade numbered well over sixty, and the manner in which the word was carried out and the different drill movements performed was such as to very favorably impress all who were present. Prior to the dismissal of the corps the boys were lined up in company column and addressed by the inspector.
 Captain Black while highly complimenting the boys on their work for the year expressed his regret that circumstances had not permitted their receiving instruction in the new infantry drill which has been being universally adopted in all the cadet corps. He expressed the hope, however, that an opportunity for the instructor and boys in this respect would be provided in the next year when he hoped to be able to congratulate the Rothesay boys, on another occasion of being second to none in the Maritime Provinces.

The inspector also referred to the high standing the corps already had and how much he would regret to see it other than attain still higher until it occupied the premier position in the province.
 The rifle shooting was also referred to by the inspector and we give some analysis of the splendid work in this connection. At the conclusion of the address three hearty cheers were given for the inspector who had the boys then brought to attention and in response to the inspector's request a rousing three cheer were given for His Majesty the King.
 The inspector then left by the 5 o'clock train for St. John where he subsequently inspected the St. Luke's Corps at 8 p. m. Rev. Mr. McKim received the inspector and the boys whose ranks although much depleted owing to the national production campaign, looked pretty smart and were through their drill in a manner which pleased the inspector and brought forth for him high praise of the work exhibited. He gave a very interesting and interesting address to the boys and congratulated all concerned with the efforts to train our boys for the future maintenance of the Empire.
 The inspector left St. John this morning returning to Nova Scotia where he is a new organized corps at St. John's College, one at the High School and also at the Newcastle County Academy returning to Nova Scotia where the inspection of three Halifax Company leading cadets takes place on June 8.

EXCELLENT WEATHER GREETED THE HOLIDAY SEEKERS YESTERDAY

Thousands of Citizens Enjoy a Rest at Parks, on the River or in the Country—Racing on Moosepath.

Yesterday was the first real summer like day this season, and thousands of citizens took advantage of the fact that it was a holiday to spend a day in the country. The spot which attracted the largest crowd was Seaside Park, and from early morning until late last night every car going in that direction was crowded with pleasure seekers. A splendid programme of music was rendered by the City Cornet Band under the direction of Bandmaster Waddington, and it added greatly to the enjoyment of the people who patronized this pleasure spot.
 The Boy Scouts also spent the day at Seaside and put in a most happy time. There was just enough breeze to temper the rays of the sun, and taken all around those who spent the day on the shore at Seaside found it ideal.
 Rockwood Park and Glen Falls also had their share of holiday seekers, large numbers of picnic parties visiting both places. At Glen Falls quite a number might be seen with the implements of toil in their hands cultivating their gardens in the hope of raising their own vegetables for the coming winter.
 Two river excursions were run, one to Hampton and one to Brown's Falls. Both were well patronized, and the hum of the motor was heard all day around Indiantown, nearly everyone who had a motor boat having it out to celebrate the coming of summer in real earnest.
 For those who did not go out of the city, the theatres provided special programmes for the holiday, and large numbers were the rule in them all.
 At the Opera House capacity business for every show was the rule, and the moving picture houses were all well patronized.
 A large crowd attended the horse races on Moosepath, and the ball fans were made happy at a fast game on St. Peter's grounds.

AMERICANS IN CITY MAY REGISTER TODAY

U. S. Consul Culver Receives Orders from Washington to Register All Americans of Military Age.

This is registration day in the United States, when every man is obliged to register at one of the booths in the precinct in which he resides. There are many United States citizens in Canada and during the last couple of weeks the United States consuls in different sections of Canada have been called on by these citizens asking if they could register with the consuls. The consuls having received no official notification during that time could not accept registrations.
 Yesterday Henry S. Culver, the American consul, whose office is in the Bank of Commerce building on Germain street, received official notification from Washington to accept registrations and all who wish to register will call at the consulate where registration cards will be furnished. When these cards have been properly filled out they will be forwarded to whatever part of the United States the person registering belongs. The military age is from twenty-one to thirty.
