ANNUAL MEETING HELD LAST EVENING

be' if his life had to be given in the great cause were strong and clear, so when the 'one clear cal' came for him no clouds fell across his vision. Just as he wrote 'We must conquer the Kaiser in God's help,' so he felt in the last strife he must conquer by the Cross of Christ his Saviour. He saw his star lighting him up from the valley to the hill of light and life evermore. where now in the 'House Beautiful' he dwells with the 'King in His Beauty' amid eternal sumshine, song, peace, and giory." TAK on HANDICRAFTS. One hundred and thirty Turis boys, ranging from 15 to 17 years of age, at tended the address given by the Rev. Mr. Lewin last evening at the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Lewin spoke on Handi-craft, and developed his subject in a most interesting manner, At the closes of the lecture the boys broke up into the different Craft groups. After par-taking of a dainty supper served by the ladies of St. Andrew's church, tha Business Boys took the place of the school boys who had held forth in the sym before supper.

World is Better Than That WAS SUCCESSFUL of Men." Good Attendance at Church

A very interesting and well argued debate was held by members of St. Mary's A. Y. P. A. at their meeting last evening. The vice-president, H. R. Coleman presided, and Rev. R. Taylor McKim was the chairman of the de-debate. The guestion earnessity dis-cused was "Resolved that the influ-ence of women in the world is better than that of man," and the affirmative side won. The sides were as follows: Affirmative side-Mrs. Ellison, Miss-L. M. Holder, Charles Morrell, Carl P. Wetmore, leader. Negative side-Ar-thur Hunt, H. R. Coloman, Frank Cole-man, Miss Hazel Prosit, leader. The invitation of St. Luke's. A. Y. P. A. to entertain the St. Mary's As-sociation was accopted with thanks and the next meeting will be held at St. Luke's.

Heber Vroum acted as auctioneer and proved a very successful one. So persuasive were the arguments used as to why the papers and magazines should be bought that frequently the second reading brought more than the original price of the publication. The total receipts from the sale on the pa-pers were far in access of last years. Vocal solos were delightfully ren-dered by Mrs. George K. Bell, Miss Biederman and R. S. Coupe acting as accompanists. The musical program-me was in charge of Mrs. J. H. Mo. Arity and R. G. Coupe while Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong was convened of the committee who served delicious re-trechments.
