weeks of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Ross, decorated in green, flowers and potted plants being used in profusion and produced a most charming effect. Miss Josephine Campbell, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, the groom being supported by his brother. The dresses of the bridal party were exceedingly pretty. The bride stream, which the compratulations of their guests. An elaborate luncheon was served during the evening. The bride received a large number of handsome and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Robinson and evening. The bride received a large number of handsome and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Robinson and bridlen, who have spent the summer in the tenth of handsome and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sedge Webber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sedge Webber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sedge Webber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bridges, who have enjoyed the conjunction of the produced a large number of handsome and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sedge Webber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Begges Webber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sedge Webber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bridges, who have enjoyed the conjunction of the Bank of Mont
Mr. and Mrs. Begges Webber this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Darell Grimmer, of Mr. and Mrs. Begges do Mr. and Mrs. Begges do Mr. and Mrs. Weekes at Grand Lake stream, the guests of Mr.

ALLATIONIUS BAVE BIG
CATHERINGS IN ST. JOHN
CATHERING ST. GENERAL ST. GENERAL

be any inclination to question the statement that the Thenksgiving ploughing frolic on Geo, a. McDowell's farm at Petersville as an event calculated to arouse interest throughout the communit. The neighbors for miles around assembled at Mr. McDowell's residence, if the afternoon was spent in demonstrating the beauty of expert of ploughmanehip.

Montreal, Oct. 27—(Special)—"Let the makers of the United States tariff show that they are sincere by removing the duty on Canadian coal," said James Ross, the president of the Dominion Coal Company, which mines the greater portion and then the fifteen acres were done.

The evening was of a social character. There was dancing and feasting. Mr. McDowell's residence, though commodious and comfortable, was not large enough to accommodate the ninety couples so part danced in another dwelling. The music was furnished by two violins and an accordeon and the labors of the afternoon were soon rewarded in the merry dance.

There were 29 double teams on the field at one time. The area covered was fifteen acres and the furrows stretched fully three-quarters of a mile. The ploughing commenced in the early afternoon and with a slight intermission for rest and light refreshments, continued till 5 o'clock and then the fifteen acres were done.

The evening was of a social character.