MC 2033

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY.

Rothesay, Jan. 2—Mrs. John Calhoun, who has spent some months with Mrs. Bogart, went to St. John on Saturday, having taken rooms on City road, which she expects to occupy during the remainder of the winter.

Everybody is glad to see Mr. David Goldie out again, after his recent illness.

Rev. Mr. Trompour, of the Rothesay College staff, went to the upper provinces to spend the Christmas holidays.

The Christmas tree and entertainment given for St. Luke's church Sunday school in the church hall, Gondola Point, on Thursday evening last, was a great success, and greatly enjoyed by the children, together with their parents and friends. The affair was under the management of Miss Allie Kirkpatrick, who has been untiring in her effort to make it the success it was.

Miss Annie Dobbin left on Friday to spend a month with friends in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fleming drove out from St. John on Monday and spent the afternoon here.

Miss Annie Sprague, of Sackville teaching staff, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson.

Among the many Christmas gifts received at "The Rectory" was a telephone, which was greatly appreciated, and will prove a convenience to both rector and people.

Mrs. William Avery and child are spending the vacation weeks with Mrs. Avery's mother and sister, Mrs. Steeves and Mrs. Murphy, Rothesay College.

The solo by Mr. W. J. Starr at St. Paul's church on last Sunday was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. W. J. Davidson assisted the choir in the evening service, and sang the solo parts in the anthem It Came Upon the Midnight Clear.

Mrs. Ellison, of Apohaqui, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. Tyng Peters.

Recent letters report that Mrs. and Miss Coffey are slowly recovering from severe illness in New York, where they are spending the winter.

Among the most successful and delightful holiday entertainments was that given on Friday evening last at "The Ellinor Home Farm," to which about sixty guests were invited. Busy fingers had made the interior of the house very pretty and festive, with wreathings of green, many colored chains of paper and tinsel, Japanese lanterns, candles, lamps, etc. Misses Dunn and Row proved ideal hostesses, attending to the comfort and pleasure of every guest, each of whom was, on arrival, served by the children of the house with coffee and real English cakes and bon-bons. During the evening a carefully prepared programme of songs, recitations and dialogues was presented in one of the upstairs rooms, arranged for the purpose. This was under the management of Miss Row, and reflected great credit on her training. Some of the children have very sweet voices, and for every piece a special fresh and appropriate costume had been prepared. The programmes were very dainty affairs, painted in water colors by a sister of Miss Dunn's and sent out from England for the occasion, each painted with a different design and carried away as a pretty souvenir.

Miss Cole, of Elliott row, St. John, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun.

Mrs. E. S. Carter, Miss Royce and Master George Carter are holiday visitors to Mrs. Carter's mother, Mrs. Fenety, Fredericton.

Mr. Allan R. Crookshank, C. E., spent Christmas and New Year with his parents here, and returned to Norton today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ansley and Miss Winifred expect to leave in a few days to make their home in Toronto.

The Misses Fraser have taken rooms with Mrs. McAfee, corner Union and Dorchester streets, and will remove to St. John in a few days.

Miss Julia Peters is visiting relatives at Apohaqui.

Miss Jackson is suffering with a severe cold at the Kennedy House.

On Monday evening the members of the whist club and a number of friends were entertained by Mrs. and the Misses Brock. After listening to the church bell toll out the old and ring in the new year, dancing was enjoyed for a short time. A feature of the evening was a Christmas tree, bearing an appropriate gift for each guest, and causing lots of fun. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. Geldert, who supplied the pulpit of the Baptist church during the summer, is spending a part of his holidays with friends here, and will hold service in the church tomorrow evening.

THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, N. B., Jan. 2—The dullness and rain on New Year's day did much to spoil the pleasure of the holiday, but wherever one went the cheery greeting "Happy New Year" was heard on all sides and with dinner parties and bridge parties the day was gay and bright to many families and New Year's day will hold pleasant memories in spite of lack of sunshine and the disagreeable weather.

A midnight service was held in the Methodist church on New Year's eve and a large congregation gathered to watch with prayer and praise the departure of the old year and the dawn of the new year 1907. The younger society element was out in full force on New Year's eve to attend the very charming ball given in Redmen's Hall, Calais, by Mr. and Mrs. William F. Todd for the pleasure of their daughter, Miss Mildred Bolton Todd. There were about 200 invitations and the party was delightfully gay. The music was by the Woodbury orchestra and was most inspiring to the dancers, who tripped the measure gaily until long after 1907 had dawned. The dresses worn were very pretty and elegant. Miss Todd received her friends in a dainty gown of white crepe de chene over white taffeta silk. Miss Rhoda Young, who received with Miss Todd, was attired in pale blue silk. At midnight refreshments of cake and ices were served and fruit punch throughout the evening. The party was one of rare enjoyment and many pleasant comments have been made of the gracefulness of Miss Todd's entertaining.
