BY TELEGRAPH

Special Despatch to Daily News.

Halifax, Dec. 21.
The steamer Lake Champlain, with Col. Otter and Canadians passed Cape Race this morning and will be due here tomorrow afternoon. Not yet definitely settled whether they will land here or not. Probably they will.

SUDDEN DEATH AT LOWER STEWIAKKE.

Early Wednesday morning Stewiacke was shocked by the news of the sudden death of Mr. John McNutt, proprietor of McNutt's Hotel, of paralysis. He rose apparently in his usual good health, but shortly afterward complained of feeling ill. He only lived a few minutes after reaching his room. In his death Stewiacke loses one of its oldest landmarks. He was 73 years of age, and one of the earliest settlers, having moved here almost 50 years ago. He carried on a hotel business before the railway to Truro was built, which business he continued in until his death. He was thoroughly upright in all his dealings, an exemplary character. He was warm-hearted and a true friend to everybody. No man in the county will be more missed.

He leaves a widow and seven children: Kay A., millwright; George, lumber merchant; Duncan, Chief Despatcher at Sydney; Margaret, wife of H. C. Bigelow, Stewiacke; Laura, Emma and Estella, who are at home.
Great sympathy is felt for the family in their very sudden bereavement.

MAYOR STUART WILL RETIRE.

We are authorized by Mayor Stuart to say that he would be much pleased to comply with the very general request of our citizens and again accept a nomination for the Mayoralty for another term (being assured, as he is, that there would be no opposition.) But owing to the fact that he has devoted almost his whole time in the past three years to civic duties, to the entire neglect of his mining business, which he must again resume, and also the fact that his health has suffered of late, he feels that in justice to himself, he must retire from the civic board.

William Creelman will sell on Saturday at rooms, Inglis street, 100 barrels of choice winter apples, including Bishop Pippins. This will be the last sale of the year.

HANDSOME DOLLS GIVEN AWAY

urday and Monday. Every lady purchaser of $2.00 and upwards, will be given a handsome large doll free.

Co.'s adv.

"Dat's a queer boss shoe over your door, Mr. Johnsing."
"Boss shoes is out of style; dat's a

Money and the Man.
Money is more apt to make the man, socially, if the man's grandfather, rather than himself, made the money.—Detroit Journal.

The Root of All Evil.
A peculiar thing about wealth is that when you own too much of it it owns you.—Smart Set.

Plenty Left For a Sandwich.
A certain lawyer who was a candidate for a municipal office went out canvassing one day and knocked at a cottage door.
The door was opened by a woman.
"Is your husband in, Mrs. —?" inquired the lawyer.
"No, sir," was the reply. "but I know what you want. My husband is sure to vote for you, because you got him off for stealing that ham last week."
"No, no; alleged stealing of the ham," corrected the lawyer.
"Alleged be bloned!" was the woman's smiling reply. "We've got a bit of it left still. Lemme give you a sandwich out of it, sir."—London Tit-Bits.

Professional Pride.
"Don't you know better than to tackle a man for a dime when he is talking to ladies?" said the citizen on the street corner, fumbling in his pocket and finding nothing less than a quarter, which he reluctantly handed out.
"Mebby you understand my business better'n I do, an mebby you don't," haughtily replied Tufford Knutt, pocket-ing the coin and moving on with his greasy old hat at a prominent angle on the side of his head.
