INDIAN SUMMER.

Along the line of smoky hills
 The crimson forest stands
 And all the day the blue-jay calls
 Throughout the autumn lands.

Now by the brook the maple leans
 With all his glory spread;
 And all the sumachs on the hills
 Have turned their green to red.

Now, by great marshes wrapt in mist,
 Or past some river's mouth
 Throughout the long, still autumn day
 Wild birds are flying south.

William Wilfrid Campbell.

AN INDIAN SUMMER CAROL.

All day the dreamy sunshine steeps
 In gold the yellowing beeches,
 In softest blue the river sleeps
 Among the island reaches.

Against the distant purple hills
 Rich autumn tints are glowing
 Its blood-red wine the sumach spills,
 Deep hues of carmine showing.

Upon the glassy stream the boat
 Glides softly, like a vision;
 And, with its shadow, seems to float
 Among the isles Elysian.
