An Evening Out with Roger Doris

Bill Stratigeas and his family are back in the restaurant business in this area once again. He has just taken over the Dixiedale Family Restaurant and Tavern on the west side of Dixie Rd. just north of Eglinton Ave.

Bill is well known in this area as he formerly owned the Delmonica Tavern on The Queensway when it was a good family restaurant. He also was a partner in the highly acclaimed Canadiana Restaurant in the Six Points Plaza and was a partner in other restaurants in this area. He left Etobicoke some time ago to operate the very successful Witness Box Restaurant in downtown Toronto. He recently sold that operation to move into this new spot on Dixie Rd.

Bill is the type of restaurateur who believes in keeping prices low, the quality high and succeeding by doing a large volume of business. Keeping the prices low is just what he has done at the new Dixiedale. He has come out with a brand new menu, adding many new items while keeping some of the old. The one thing that he has not kept is the prices. Most of the prices have been lowered with some of them being reduced by more than 50 per cent.

The whole concept of the Dixiedale Restaurant now is to cater to families. There is a special children's menu that allows a child to have a meal complete with soft drink and dessert for less than two dollars. Items on the menu for adults are just as reasonably priced. All entrees on the menu include soup or juice and tea or coffee.

The Dixiedale is fully licensed under the LLBO and draft beer has just been installed. It is quite a large restaurant with three separate dining areas seating a total of over 200 people.

Bill Stratigeas has always operated excellent restaurants in the past and there is no doubt in my mind that Dixiedale Restaurant and Tavern will become one of the finer family dining spots in the area.

I promised to tell you all about the trip I will lead to the Grand Bahama Hotel on Aug. 27 but space does not allow me to do so this week. I can assure you that all details will be in next week's paper for sure.

What I can tell you is that top price for deluxe accommodation with airfare, breakfasts and dinners and much more will be just $289 per person.

The new Carlingview Airport Inn on Carlingview Drive just south of Dixon Rd. is now fully opened.

They opened their new Amici Dining Room and the cocktail lounge this past weekend.

The Amici Dining Room will be serving some great Italian dishes. The decor in both the dining room and the lounge is just beautiful.

The O'Neal Sisters are currently pleasing patrons of the Cartier Lounge in the Hotel Triumph at Keele St. and Hwy. 401. These two talented singers offer a most entertaining show nightly.
