Dear Mr. Meighen:-

There was nothing in The Gazette today of the London meeting. Whether it was purposely left out, or not furnished is a question. If the latter the Canadian Press has been remiss, especially when the importance of your remarks are considered bearing on future policies, as well as the magnitude of the demonstration, its significance, attendance of the Quebec men, etc. The C. P. at London is looked after by the Free Press and Advertiser was about, and it was the latter's work, Ford told me
