

When the Leading Battalion reaches Point 2, both Majors, the Adjutant and the Company Commanders will resume their posts in Close Column, as in Plate IV., and when Rear Company has passed Point 2.

C. O., Leading Batt.: "Form Fours—Right—No. 1 will direct"—and upon arrival at Point 1—"Change Direction—Right—Right Wheel—Double March"—and when square—"Forward," and "Quick March"—when that pace will not check the Battalion in rear. When it arrives at its original position in the alignment—"Halt—Right Turn—Right Dress."

The Remaining Battalions will act in a similar manner, the entire Brigade forming up in its original position facing the Saluting Point.

Massed Bands—When the last item of the Brigade has passed the Saluting Point, the Massed Bands will turn about, and move to their original position facing the Saluting Point, and in rear of the Brigade; doubling, if necessary, to clear the Leading Battalion.

Advancing in Review Order

Brigadier: "Officers and Colours will take Post in Review Order."

On this command, the procedure will be as already described for receiving the Reviewing Officer, then—

Brigadier: "The Brigade will advance in Review Order—2nd Battalion will direct."
