

	No.	Source	Indian name	English name	Meaning
barrens	471.	X.	Pleegun	The strait at Blomidon.	The opening in a broken beaver dam.
		R.	Pleegun	Cape Split	A hand-spike used for opening a beaver dam.
Pet- around.		P.	Pleegun	-do-	An opening in a beaver dam.
ver.		D.	-do-	-de-	The opening in the beaver dam.
is					R Note - Tradition says Glooscap opened up his beaver dam there. It swung round from Partridge island where it was attached, and let off the pond, and he stuck up his two bludgeons at cape Split where they are to be seen until this day. (Compare 472. A) D. contains a long note by J.S.C. substantially same as that of R.)
ver. bay. 8 and	472.	R.	Plektēok	Cape Blomidon
		E.	Plekteok	Cape St. George
		P.	Plekteok	(1) Blomidon	A hand-spike.
		X.D.	Plektēok	(2) The columnar rocks at cape Split The columnar rocks at cape Split
nts.					Note - P. Tradition has it that Glooscap used one of these hand-spikes to open up the passage at cape Split and drain the Annapolis valley.
oints.	473.	X.E.	Pogomkook	Pubnico, N.S.	X. Dry sand.
		P.	Pogumkook	-do-
		R.	Pogumkook'	-do-	Dry coarse lumpy sand.
			Pogomkigeak. See note to 408.
is.	474.	P.	Pogoozumkek-boektābā	St. Peters bay, P.E.I.	The bay of clams.
f gas. ventri	475.	P.	Pogopskegek	Onslow, or North river
n,	476.	X.	Pogōpsakek	Sheshen	A dry rock.
	477.	P.	Pogumkek	Pomket, N.S.	Raining along.
		X.	Pogumkek	-do-	Dry sand.
w.		E.R.	Pogumkek'	Pomket harbour	